1 Mr. Johnson, do you need to take a break?

2 THE WITNESS: No.

3 MR. MCLEOD: Well, let's take a 15-minute
4 break regardless, and -- because I'm going to eat
5 a half a sandwich, and then we'll get back at it.
6 How does that sound? Is that good with everybody?

7 MR. FORBES: That sounds good with me.

8 MR. MCLEOD: All right. 15 minutes.

9 Madam court reporter and videographer, is 10 that all right with you all?11 THE REPORTER: That works with me. Thank 12 you.

13 MR. MCLEOD: Yes, ma'am.

14 VIDEO TECHNICIAN: The time is 12:46 p.m.
15 This ends unit number 2. We're off the record.

16 (A recess was taken.)

17 VIDEO TECHNICIAN: The time is 1:12 p.m.
18 This begins unit number 3. We're on the record.19 EXAMINATION BY COUNSEL FOR PLAINTIFF
20 BY MR. MCLEOD:21 Q. Mr. Johnson, my name is Mullins McLeod,
22 and I represent Brian as a result of the injuries

1 he suffered from the Adidas bribery scheme.

2 The first thing I want to share with you
3 is I respect your constitutional rights to assert
4 the Fifth Amendment. Okay? Can you hear me okay?

5 A. Yes, sir.

6 Q. Okay. And my purposes are not served
7 today by trying to trick you into waiving that
8 constitutional right of yours. Okay?

9 A. Okay.

10 MR. MCLEOD: Mr. Crawford, it's okay with 11 me, you know, if we go through this and, at the 12 end, before we go off the record, I can give you
13 and Mr. Johnson time to caucus. And if there is 14 some question that he answered that either you or 15 Mr. Johnson, you know, is concerned about, we can
16 go back on the record and, as far as I'm 17 concerned, you can identify that question and 18 assert the privilege, and as far as I'm concerned,
19 it won't constitute a waiver at all. Okay?

20 MR. DICKEY: I appreciate that. I don't 21 think that's how it works. I think once you let 22 the cat out of the bag, you can't, even for

Kenneth Laverne Johnson , Jr.

1 purposes of a deposition, go back. I -- I
2 appreciate what you're offering, but I don't think
3 that's how it works.

4 MR. MCLEOD: Well, I think that -- well,
5 anyway, that's just an offer I'm making. And 6 we'll get going.

7 BY MR. MCLEOD:

8 Q. So Mr. Johnson, first, I just want to 9 talk to you a little bit about basketball. Okay?
10 Is that all right with you?

11 A. Yes.

12 Q. All right. In this country, has youth
13 basketball developed fairly significantly within 14 the last 20 years?

15 A. Yes.

16 Q. And could you share with me please, sir,
17 how it has developed?

18 A. I think the advent of social media has 19 shined a lot of light on the fact that there are a
20 lot of talented players all around the country.

21 Q. Okay. Has the youth basketball travel
22 circuits evolved a significant amount over the

Kenneth Laverne Johnson , Jr.
Bowen v. Adidas

April 14, 2021

1 last 20 years?

2 A. Yes.

3 Q. I think you shared, in your earlier
4 testimony, that the AAU acronym is kind of an
5 outdated, you know, designation.

6 Do you remember that?

7 A. Yes.

8 Q. And the AAU, does it stand for Amateur
9 Athletic Union?

10 A. Yes.

11 Q. And under the AAU designation, were those 12 leagues and tournaments governed by a governing
13 body known as the Amateur Athletic Union?

14 A. Yes. I believe so.

15 Q. So 20 years ago, if somebody played AAU
16 basketball, that was the only comparable -- or 17 that was the only youth travel league available;
18 is that right?

19 A. I believe so.

20 Q. And then at some point in time, is it
21 true, sir, that companies, for-profit companies
22 like Adidas, developed their own travel ball

Kenneth Laverne Johnson , Jr.
Bowen v. Adidas

April 14, 2021

1       circuits?

2           A. Yes. I'm not sure when, but yes.

3           Q. Okay. How long have you been in the 4 coaching profession, sir?

5           A. I'd say since 2001, approximately.

6           Q. All right. So from 2001 until today has
7 Adidas had its own youth travel circuit?

8           A. I'm not sure.

9           Q. Okay. Did Adidas have its own youth
10 travel circuit, to your knowledge, in 2014, 2015,
11 and 2016?12          A. Once again, I'm not sure when it began,
13 but I do remember -- I know that Adidas at one
14 point had their own circuit.15          Q. Okay. And Nike, in fact, has its own 16 circuit as well, do they not?

17          A. Yes.

18          Q. And the Nike youth travel circuit is 19 referred to as -- what's the acronym?

20          A. EYBL.

21          Q. All right. And -- you said EYBL?

22          A. EYBL.

Kenneth Laverne Johnson , Jr.
Bowen v. Adidas

April 14, 2021

1 Q. And what does that stand for, sir?

2 A. Elite Youth Basketball League.

3 Q. All right. Does Under Armor have its own
4 travel circuit for youth basketball in this 5 country?

6 A. Yes.

7 Q. And what is the name of the Under Armor
8 travel circuit, please, sir?9 A. I don't recall offhand. If you know the 10 name, I can confirm.11 Q. That's okay. If you don't recall, I
12 don't want you to guess.13 Now, with regard to the Adidas travel
14 circuit, is it generally referred to as the 15 gauntlet series?

16 A. Yes. That's what I'm familiar with.

17 Q. Okay. And is it also your understanding
18 that, with regard to the Adidas gauntlet series,
19 they limit participation in that travel circuit to 20 top-tier teams? Isn't that right?21 A. Yes. I think -- yes. I believe that 22 they determine the teams that they believe to be

1 top tier and it's limited to them.

2 Q. And so for example, if my son wanted to
3 play on the Adidas gauntlet series travel circuit,
4 if he wasn't a top-tier player, Adidas would not
5 allow him access to that travel circuit; isn't
6 that correct?

7 A. Well, the teams are usually broken up
8 into a representative geographical region. So
9 depending on the geographical region and the 10 bordering state that you lived in, your son would 11 need to make -- be able to be accepted on one of 12 those teams. And if one of those teams was deemed 13 by Adidas to be good enough to participate in 14 their league, then that's how it would work. I
15 don't think Adidas, like, goes through -- or any 16 of the shoe companies goes through and selects
17 individual players to say whether they're good
18 enough. I think it's up to the individual teams
19 to select the player, and then those teams can try
20 to be qualified for the circuits.

21 Q. Okay. So your understanding of the way
22 the gauntlet series works is that teams try to

Kenneth Laverne Johnson , Jr.
Bowen v. Adidas

April 14, 2021

Page 131

1 qualify with Adidas so that they are able to
2 compete on its premier circuit, otherwise known as
3 the gauntlet series; is that right?

4 A. Yes.

5 Q. Now, if -- once teams are allowed to 6 participate on the gauntlet circuit, do they
7 receive, to your knowledge, funds from Adidas?

8 A. Yes. To my knowledge, there's 9 sponsorship funds, yes --

10 Q. Okay.

11 A. -- and apparel. Sponsorship funds and 12 apparel.

13 Q. And would it be fair to say, sir, that
14 the Adidas gauntlet travel circuit is a
15 well-funded youth basketball travel circuit?

16 A. It would be my opinion that I'd be
17 giving, but I would say yes.

18 Q. So for example, on the gauntlet series,
19 you don't have circumstances where kids don't have 20 shoes to play ball, do they?

21 A. I would say not typically.

22 Q. Right. And Adidas will provide the

Page 132

1 apparel and the gear needed to compete on that
2 circuit if the team requests the apparel; isn't
3 that your understanding?

4 A. Yeah, I think each team -- I don't think
5 it's a universal deal. I think each team
6 negotiates their own deal with a particular brand,
7 but I could be mistaken with that. I don't
8 know -- I'm not familiar with everyone's
9 individual package. And then they will, I guess,
10 compete with or without the apparel as they see
11 fit.

12 Q. Okay. And I know that the travel leagues
13 have been criticized, but in the beginning, wasn't
14 one of the useful purposes of the travel leagues
15 is it gave kids the ability to compete against 16 other elite prospects across the country?

17 A. Yes.

18 Q. And so for example, a player may be the 19 best player on his high school team and, in most 20 high school games, be the best player on the 21 court, and in that instance, the player doesn't
22 get the competitive minutes needed to properly

1 develop his basketball skill.

2                   Would you agree with that?

3           A. Yes.

4           Q. Would you agree with me that there's 5 really no substitute in the preparation for the 6 NBA for competitive minutes against elite
7 competition?

8           A. No substitute as far as the -- are you
9 saying that the summer gaunt- -- the series?

10          Q. Yes. Yes, sir. While they are -- while 11 a player, an elite prospect, is in high school, is 12 there any product that can better prepare them,
13 basketball-wise, than these well-funded travel
14 circuits?

15          A. I mean, I think that's subject for 16 debate. I think that is definitely one of the top
17 two or three ways to prepare yourself.

18          Q. For example, for a kid like Brian Bowen
19 from Saginaw, Michigan, the opportunity to develop 20 his basketball skills on a travel circuit would be 21 instrumental to his development, wouldn't it?

22          A. I believe that is one of the ways that

Kenneth Laverne Johnson , Jr.
Bowen v. Adidas

April 14, 2021

1 would help him develop.

2 Q. Okay. Now, as far as elite prospects go,
3 are you familiar, I'm assuming, with the rating
4 system that has evolved over the years with regard
5 to identifying and rating top-tier prospects?

6 A. Yes.

7 Q. And would one of those ratings agencies
8 be Rivals.com?

9 A. Yes.

10 Q. Does ESPN have its own ratings system?

11 A. Yes.

12 Q. All right. Share with me, please, sir,
13 whether or not, based upon your personal
14 knowledge, these ratings systems are fairly
15 involved and fairly reliable when it comes to 16 identifying and rating our nation's top basketball
17 prospects.

18 A. Yes. I mean, you're always going to 19 have, you know, differences of opinions. But I
20 believe that, taken in its totality, the ratings
21 systems do a pretty good job of identifying
22 prospects and kind of putting them in a general

1 ballpark of where they kind of shape out across
2 the country.

3 Q. Yes, sir. And maybe a good way to look
4 at that is, to compare it with the sport of 5 football, football is just now getting to the 6 point where you have these seven-on-seven travel
7 teams, right?

8 A. Yes.

9 Q. When, 15 years ago, there was no such
10 thing as a -- you know, a seven-on-seven travel
11 football team, right?

12 A. I'm not sure.

13 Q. Well, let me -- maybe this is an easier
14 question: Would you agree with me that, because 15 of the well-funded travel circuits, the 16 identification of elite prospects is more advanced
17 in basketball than it is in football?

18 A. Yes. There's a -- yeah, there's -- I
19 mean, there's a lot more members of football teams
20 and so many positions. So I would say, yes, in 21 basketball, the top prospects do generally --
22 they're more easily identified or known.

1           Q. And sir, would one of the premier reasons
2 for that to be the fact that you have this
3 well-funded AAU -- I mean, I'm sorry, these
4 well-funded travel circuits that aid and assist
5 people in identifying the elite prospects?

6           A. Yes.

7           Q. Now, as far as Rivals goes, is it your
8 general understanding that there are very few
9 players in each high school class that qualify or 10 are rated as a consensus five-star player?

11          A. Yes. Very few.

12          Q. And is it true, sir, that, on average,
13 there are roughly 30 five-star players in each
14 senior class in this country?

15          A. Yes.

16          Q. And the reason why there are 30 five-star
17 players in each class is because there are 30 NBA
18 teams; isn't that correct?

19          A. I've never identified that as a fact, but 20 I can see how that makes sense.

21          Q. Because there are, in fact, sir, 30 NBA
22 teams, correct?

Page 137

1 A. Yes.

2 Q. And each NBA team gets one selection in
3 the first round of each year's NBA draft; is that
4 correct?

5 A. Yes.

6 Q. Now, in addition to the five-star rating,
7 there's also a designation -- an award or accolade
8 known as the McDonald's All American; is that 9 right?

10 A. Yes.

11 Q. And share with me whether or not being 12 designated as a McDonald's All American is a 13 distinction in youth basketball in this country?14 A. Yes. It's -- I believe it to be the 15 highest honor that you can -- that a student
16 athlete in high school would try to achieve, or be 17 awarded with, is a McDonald's All American
18 designation.19 Q. Okay. And the Jordan Brand Classic game
20 is another accolade that is only given to the best
21 of the best as far as elite prospects go in this
22 country; is that correct?

Kenneth Laverne Johnson , Jr.
Bowen v. Adidas

April 14, 2021

Page 138

1           A. It is. But I guess -- I think Jordan
2 Brand is a little different because I think they
3 tend to select primarily from kids who played on 4 the Nike circuit, the EYBL circuit.

5           Q. Okay. Now, in Brian's case, he was a
6 consensus five-star recruit; isn't that correct?

7           A. I'm not sure. I believe -- I know that
8 he was highly ranked. I'm not sure if he was 9 consensus...

10          Q. Mr. Johnson, you don't know if Brian
11 Bowen was a consensus five-star recruit coming out
12 of high school?

13          A. I want to be extremely accurate, and I
14 never recall seeing whether he was a five-star. I
15 remember him being thought of as a top 20 player,
16 but I don't know what each -- when you say
17 consensus, I'm assuming you're talking about
18 across all the different ranking services. So I
19 don't know what each ranking service had him
20 ranked.

21          Q. Okay.

22          A. I believe he -- if I had to make a guess,

Page 139

1 I would say yes.

2 Q. Okay. And isn't it true, sir, that Brian
3 was an McDonald's All American coming out of high
4 school?

5 A. Yes.

6 Q. And he was the MVP of the Jordan Brand
7 Classic game; isn't that correct?

8 A. Yes.

9 Q. And Brian was also the Indiana Gatorade
10 player of the year in senior year in high school;
11 isn't that correct?

12 A. Yes.

13 Q. And as far as the Gatorade player of the 14 year selection in each state, is that a high honor
15 for an elite prospect to be awarded?

16 A. I believe so.

17 Q. And in particular, the State of Indiana
18 has a fairly proud basketball tradition, does it
19 not?

20 A. Yes.

21 Q. Just like Kentucky, as a state, has a
22 fairly proud basketball tradition; is that

1 correct?

2 A. Yes.

3 Q. So as far as an accolade or a distinction
4 is concerned, would you agree with me that being
5 the Indiana Gatorade player of the year is more of
6 a distinction than being the New Mexico Gatorade
7 player of the year?8 A. Yeah. I think it's based off of sheer 9 population of athletes to choose from
10 participating at a high level, I would say so.11 Q. And there are more, generally speaking,
12 elite basketball players in the State of Indiana
13 than there are in states like New Mexico; isn't
14 that correct?

15 A. Yes.

16 Q. Now, isn't it true, sir, that, as far as
17 the NBA draft is concerned, an overwhelming
18 majority of first-round picks were McDonald's All
19 Americans coming out of high school?

20 MR. MORAN: Objection.

21 THE WITNESS: I would be speculating. I
22 know that first-round picks are coming a lot from

Kenneth Laverne Johnson, Jr.
Bowen v. Adidas

April 14, 2021

Page 141

1 Europe nowadays. But if you're talking about
2 players that are coming in the United States, I
3 would assume that to be true. I haven't seen any 4 details directly that speak to that.

5 BY MR. MCLEOD:

6 Q. Okay. I'm going to read for you a
7 statistic, and I'll just ask you whether you would 8 disagree -- agree or disagree with this statistic.

9 A. Okay.

10 Q. There have been seven acknowledged All
11 American games since 2013. There are 24 players
12 selected each year, and 168 players the past seven 13 years. Of those 168, 100, or 59.5 percent, were 14 selected in the NBA draft, and 73 were taken in 15 the first round.

16 Do you have any reason to believe that 17 those statistics are inaccurate?

18 A. No, I don't.

19 Q. Now, as far as the Jordan Brand Classic
20 game is concerned, I'm going to share with you
21 another statistic and just ask you, sir, whether 22 you agree or disagree with that statistic.

Page 142

1           There have been 14 co-MVPs of the Jordan
2 game since 2013. Nine of the 14 were drafted in 3 the first round, or 64.2 percent, and one was
4 drafted in the second round.

5           Do those statistics appear to be accurate
6 to you, sir, based upon your personal knowledge of 7 recruiting and NBA draft picks?

8           A. Yes.

9           Q. Now, for an elite player like Brian,
10 would it be fair to say that the colleges compete
11 fiercely for the right to their basketball labor
12 and basketball talent?

13           A. Yes.

14           Q. And share with me, please, sir, how you
15 would generally describe the fierce competition
16 among the elite college teams for the elite
17 players.

18           A. I think there's what you consider to be 19 high major conferences and -- or power five
20 schools. I think that's more of a football term.
21 But, you know, high major schools in the bigger
22 conferences that will try to communicate with the

Kenneth Laverne Johnson , Jr.
Bowen v. Adidas

April 14, 2021

Page 143

1 players. There are some schools that will call
2 players every single day, at least once a day,
3 maybe possibly multiple members of the staff.
4 They will go and watch those players play with
5 their summer basketball teams when they're allowed
6 out. They won't miss a game. They'll have
7 somebody there to watch them play every game.

8 And they will go and watch them at their
9 high schools. They'll go watch them in their fall
10 workouts. They'll watch them during their season.
11 And they'll go watch them during their spring
12 workouts. And then they will try to secure one of 13 the official visits for them to come to the school
14 so that they can host them at their school and try
15 to get them to want to be a part of their
16 university.

17 Q. Okay. And is part of the competition for 18 these elite prospects' basketball labor and talent
19 the offering of the basketball services that a
20 particular school offers?

21 A. Yes.

22 Q. And for Louisville, would it be fair to

Kenneth Laverne Johnson, Jr.
Bowen v. Adidas

April 14, 2021

1 say that, in 2017, it was one of the top programs
2 in the country?

3 A. Yes. I believe so.

4 Q. And is that something that you were proud
5 of, and rightfully so?

6 A. Yes.

7 Q. It takes a lot of work to be good at 8 anything, doesn't it, Mr. Johnson?

9 A. It does.

10 Q. And the college basketball life for a
11 coach like you isn't as glamorous as it might look 12 to some that are sitting in the stands; isn't that 13 right?

14 A. Yes, there are a lot of hours that go
15 into, and you're responsible for the lives of at 16 least 13 people.

17 Q. Yes, sir.

18 Now, for Louisville, was one of the 19 things that Louisville offered -- was one of those 20 things Rick Pitino, a Hall of Fame coach?

21 A. Yes. Rick Pitino is a Hall of Fame
22 coach, and he is known as a talent developer.

Page 145

1           Q. And I was going to get to the talent
2 developer piece, and I'll come back to that.

3           But just with regard to Coach Pitino's
4 track record of success in college basketball,
5 would you agree with me that it is a fairly
6 sterling track record of success on the court?

7           A. Yes.

8           Q. And if I told you that Coach Pitino's
9 record in NCAA tournament play was approximately 10 75 percent, would that sound about right?

11          A. Yes.

12          Q. At Louisville, is it true that 12 of 13 Coach Pitino's of 15 Louisville Cardinal teams
14 made it to the NCAA tournament?

15          A. Yes. I believe so.

16          Q. And the 2013 Louisville team won the 17 national championship; is that right?

18          A. Yes.

19          Q. Now, is Coach Pitino also one of a select 20 few to have ever coached elite basketball
21 prospects, to have coached multiple college teams
22 to a Final Four appearance?

Page 146

1 A. Yes.

2 Q. Did Coach Pitino do that at Providence?

3 A. Yes.

4 Q. Did he do that at Kentucky?

5 A. Yes.

6 Q. And did he also, sir, do that on multiple
7 occasions at the University of Louisville?

8 A. Yes.

9 Q. Would you agree with me, sir, that the 10 fact that Coach Pitino was able to take three
11 different schools to the Final Four is a strong
12 indicator that his coaching ability is extremely 13 high?

14 MR. MORAN: Objection.

15 THE WITNESS: Yes.

16 BY MR. MCLEOD:

17 Q. Would you agree with me, sir, that for a
18 coach to be able to take a school like Providence
19 to the Final Four, it has to be a well-coached,
20 well-disciplined, and well-conditioned unit?

21 A. Yes.

22 Q. Now, at Louisville, did Louisville also

1 offer Brian, in addition to elite coaching, elite
2 competition?

3 MR. MORAN: Objection.

4 THE WITNESS: Are you asking about a
5 specific person or are you talking about
6 Louisville in general?

7 BY MR. MCLEOD:

8 Q. Well, let me ask a more artful question.

9 For any player that comes to Louisville
10 and is a part of the men's basketball team, one
11 benefit they get is playing in the ACC, correct?

12 A. Yes. We play in the ACC -- they played
13 in the ACC. They would play a competitive
14 non-conference schedule as well.

15 Q. Okay. And as far as the ACC is 16 concerned, is it generally understood within the 17 industry that the Atlantic Coast Conference is the 18 most competitive conference in all of college
19 basketball?

20 MR. MORAN: Objection.

21 THE WITNESS: I'm sure that it's going to 22 be up for debate with some of the other

Kenneth Laverne Johnson , Jr.

April 14, 2021

1       conferences, but I think it is definitely one of
2       the -- I mean, undeniably it's one of the top
3       basketball conferences.

4       BY MR. MCLEOD:

5           Q.    Okay.  And you mentioned, sir, that at 6       Louisville another benefit is you play a
7       competitive non-conference schedule; is that
8       right?

9           A.    Yes.

10          Q.    And share with me, please, sir, from a
11       basketball development and a national championship
12       objective, why that's important.

13          A.    Well, you want to test yourself against 14       some of the elite competition to see where you
15       stand.  A lot of times the non- -- well, majority
16       of the time the non-conference comes before your 17       conference play will begin, so you'll have what 18       you consider to be tuneups so you can kind of get 19       an understanding of what your strengths are and 20       what your weaknesses are.

21           But being on a stage where you're playing
22       nationally televised games against other elite

1 competition, you know, sets you up for success in
2 the future.

3 Q. And is it fair to say, sir, that at
4 programs like Louisville another reason why you
5 play a tough, competitive non-conference schedule
6 is the end goal is a deep run in the NCAA
7 tournament? Is that right?

8 A. Yes. If you can have a strong strength
9 of schedule, that can -- on tournament selection
10 day, hopefully that will help you get you a
11 higher -- or a lower seed so that you are 12 hopefully having an easier route to advance in the 13 tournament.

14 Q. Okay. And so is it your understanding
15 that the NCAA selection committee uses your
16 non-conference schedule as part of the rating
17 system and how teams are assigned seeds within the 18 NCAA tournament?

19 A. Yes.

20 Q. And would it be fair to say, sir, that
21 colleges like Louisville spend a significant 22 amount of time trying to figure out and decide who

Page 150

1       their non-conference opponents will be in a given
2       year?

3           A. Yes.

4           Q. And is that time and effort devoted for 5       that reason, for the selection committee in the 6       hopes of getting a good seed in return?

7           A. Yes. That's a part of it.

8           Q. Would you agree with me, sir, that if 12
9       of Coach Pitino's 15 teams at Louisville made it
10      to the NCAA tournament, that that would represent 11      a fairly large percentage of his teams playing in 12      the tournament?

13           A. Yes.

14           Q. Would you agree, sir, that playing for 15       Coach Pitino, in comparison to his peers, gives 16       elite prospects like Brian a better chance of 17       playing in the NCAA tournament because of 18       Coach Pitino's track record of success?

19           A. Yes.

20           Q. Now, Mr. Johnson, would you describe
21       the -- how would you describe the competition
22       among NCAA member schools for the building of

1 athletic facilities in general?

2 A. The competition? I mean, I'm not as
3 well-versed on the competition for the building of 4 the facilities.

5 Q. Well, let me ask you this: Isn't it
6 true, sir, that when -- at all times when you
7 worked at Louisville as an assistant coach,
8 whenever elite prospects would attend campus for 9 their visit, one of the things that you all
10 showcased were your training facilities; is that
11 correct?

12 A. Oh, yes.

13 Q. And --

14 A. Especially recruiting and arena and 15 dormitories.

16 Q. Okay. And those basketball-related
17 services are important to elite prospects like
18 Brian in their decision on where to commit their 19 eligibility; isn't that correct?

20 MR. MORAN: Objection.

21 THE WITNESS: Oftentimes, yes.

22 (Discussion off the record.)

Page 152

1 BY MR. MCLEOD:

2 Q. So Mr. Johnson, would it be fair to say
3 that when an elite player like Brian chooses a
4 school, that choice is made for primarily
5 basketball reasons?

6 MR. MORAN: Objection.

7 BY MR. MCLEOD:

8 Q. You can answer.

9 A. My opinion is that will be a large
10 portion of the reason why they would select a
11 school.

12 Q. Okay. And would you also agree, sir,
13 that when an elite prospect like Brian selects a
14 school, that that selection is, in part, based 15 upon economic gain down the road?

16 MR. MORAN: Objection.

17 THE WITNESS: Are you asking me about
18 Brian or are you asking me about just elite
19 prospects? Can you --

20 BY MR. MCLEOD:

21 Q. Elite prospects in general.

22 A. Okay. Can you repeat the question for

Kenneth Laverne Johnson , Jr.
Bowen v. Adidas

April 14, 2021

Page 153

1 me?

2 Q. Yeah. Well, let me -- I'll ask you a
3 better question.4           Would you agree with me that, in general,
5 a professional -- two of the most important
6 decisions a professional basketball player makes
7 in his career are made while he's still an
8 amateur: One, where to spend the year or years
9 after high school graduation preparing for the 10 NBA; and two, when to forgo his NCAA eligibility
11 and enter the draft?

12           MR. MORAN: Objection.

13           THE WITNESS: I would agree with that.

14 BY MR. MCLEOD:

15           Q. Okay. And let's talk about the first
16 one, and that is where to spend the year or years
17 after high school graduation preparing for the NBA
18 draft.19           Is there -- do you have any personal
20 knowledge of there being any comparable amateur
21 product in North America to prepare players for 22 the NBA outside of NCAA basketball?

Kenneth Laverne Johnson , Jr.
Bowen v. Adidas

April 14, 2021

Page 154

1           A. I believe NC- -- my personal opinion is
2 that NCAA basketball is the best. I know they've
3 established a G League component now. I don't
4 know if it's called the G League or whatever
5 they're calling it.

6           But I believe, personally, that the NCAA
7 is the best way.

8           Q. Okay. And just to clarify my question,
9 as far as an amateur product is concerned -- okay?

10          A. Yes.

11          Q. -- is there any comparable amateur
12 product in North America other than -- that even 13 begins to compare with the NCAA in its ability to 14 prepare elite prospects for the NBA?

15          MR. MORAN: Objection.

16          THE WITNESS: Not in North America.

17          BY MR. MCLEOD:

18          Q. For example, church leagues, while
19 beneficial in many regards, would not be a
20 suitable or a comparable product to NCAA
21 basketball with regards to preparation for the 22 NBA; is that correct?

1 A. Correct.

2 Q. Are there any organized amateur leagues
3 in North America that even come close to offering
4 what the NCAA offers elite prospects like Brian in 5 preparation for the NBA draft?

6 A. Not that I'm aware of.

7 Q. Okay. Now, with regard to the second
8 decision -- most important decision that 9 professional players make while they're still an
10 amateur, when to forgo their eligibility and enter
11 the draft, share with me why that is an important
12 decision to make for any amateur elite prospect
13 prior to going to the draft.

14 MR. MORAN: Objection.

15 THE WITNESS: If you -- my opinion is
16 that if you enter the draft before the NBA teams
17 that will select you don't feel as though you're
18 ready to -- if you're not a high draftable
19 prospect, you're forgoing your eligibility, so you
20 can't return to college.21 So you have to be very selective about 22 making sure that you're ready to be drafted to

Kenneth Laverne Johnson , Jr.

Page 156

1 secure -- have a -- you know, preferably a
2 first-round draft pick so that you can have a
3 guaranteed contract which can kind of jump-start
4 your longer-term career in the NBA.

5 Q. Yes, sir. And that decisionmaking
6 process that elite prospects go through is 7 something that you are very familiar with, having 8 coached at a top-tier program like Louisville; is 9 that fair to say?

10 A. Yes.

11 Q. Now, once a player like Brian goes
12 through the NBA draft, they cannot return to 13 college, correct?

14 A. Correct.

15 Q. And is it true, sir, that you can only go
16 through the NBA draft once?

17 A. Go into the NBA draft and remain? Yes.

18 Q. Okay. And so, generally speaking, for 19 players like Brian, you want to make sure that,
20 when you go through the draft, your basketball
21 abilities and your stock is at its highest; is 22 that correct?

Page 157

1 A. Yes.

2 Q. And that's a decision that most kids make
3 while they are preparing for the NBA at elite
4 college teams at various colleges across the
5 country; isn't that right?

6 A. Yes.

7 Q. Okay. Now, for Louisville, have you seen
8 any of the Forbes magazine articles that rate
9 Louisville as the richest, most valuable college
10 basketball team in the country?

11 A. Yes.

12 Q. And was it generally understood while you
13 were an assistant coach at Louisville that 14 Louisville was, in fact, the most valuable college
15 team in the country?

16 A. Yes.

17 Q. Was one of the things, to your
18 understanding, that led Louisville to be one of 19 the wealthiest college teams in the country its 20 apparel sponsorship deal with Adidas?21 A. I had identified it, from my 22 understanding, to be with the arena that they have

Kenneth Laverne Johnson , Jr.

April 14, 2021

1 and the fact that they can generate that. But I
2 could also, without -- well, I don't want to make
3 a guess about their apparel deal because I didn't
4 have any knowledge of what their actual apparel
5 deal was.

6 Q. Yes, sir. Fair enough. And I don't want
7 you to guess. Okay? I totally understand.

8 In 2014 and 2015, it's been reported that
9 Louisville basketball program averaged
10 approximately $52 million in revenues.

11 Does that figure sound about right to 12 you, based upon having been a coach at Louisville?

13 A. Yes.

14 Q. All right. And it's been reported that
15 Louisville, their profits during the same time,
16 eclipsed the profits of some NBA teams like the 17 Cleveland Cavaliers.

18 Is that your general understanding from 19 having worked -- I mean, having coached at 20 Louisville?

21 A. That's my first time hearing that 22 statistic.

Kenneth Laverne Johnson , Jr.

April 14, 2021

Page 159

1           Q. Okay. Were you aware that it's been
2 reported that Louisville's annual revenues are
3 greater than the Oklahoma City Thunder?

4           A. No, I hadn't read that.

5           Q. Had you read it reported that
6 Louisville's annual revenues eclipsed those of the 7 Charlotte Hornets?

8           A. No.

9           Q. Okay. Now, the arena where Louisville
10 plays its home games and practices is known as 11 what?

12          A. Yum! Center.

13          Q. Yes, sir. And is that a fairly
14 sophisticated, state-of-the-art facility?

15          A. Yes.

16          Q. Has it been generally reported that the 17 cost of construction of that state-of-the-art
18 facility being $237 million?

19          A. I don't know.

20          Q. Share with me, please, sir, the type of 21 training and services that an elite prospects like
22 Brian can get within the arena known as the

Kenneth Laverne Johnson , Jr.

1 Yum! Center.

2 A. The actual arena downtown Louisville, the
3 Yum! Center, we have the game floor, and there's 4 also a practice gym within that arena, as well as 5 there's hot tub, cold tub there, and I think some
6 other types of training equipment for recovery.7 Q. How about a weight room, sir? Is a
8 weight room located in the arena?9 A. Not at the -- not when I was -- not at 10 the downtown arena. There's the weight room on 11 campus, the little Yum! Center, where -- we 12 consider our practice facility had a practice
13 court, a weight room, and coaches' offices in that 14 building.15 Q. Okay. And in the little Yum! Center, was 16 that also a state-of-the-art training facility?

17 A. Yes.

18 Q. And was the little Yum! Center and the 19 big Yum! Center two of the main attractions, if 20 you will, that Louisville used to compete for the 21 basketball services and basketball talents of 22 elite prospects like Brian?

Page 161

1 A. Yes.

2 Q. And as far as the big Yum! Center is
3 concerned, it seats roughly 20,000 fans; is that
4 right?

5 A. Yeah. Yes. I'm sorry.

6 Q. In comparison to other arenas in college
7 basketball, would you agree with me that that is a
8 very large arena?

9 A. Yes.

10 Q. Would you agree with me, sir, that in 11 fact, Louisville's arena is much larger than some 12 NBA arenas, as far as the number of fans allowed
13 in the arena?14 A. I'm not exactly sure how big a lot of NBA
15 arenas are. But I know -- I guess from my 16 research at the time, I thought that the 17 attendance at our games was significantly more
18 than some NBA teams.19 Q. And that fan attendance and the size of 20 the arena, was that also part of the 21 basketball-related services that Louisville used
22 to attract elite prospects like Brian?

Page 162

1 A. Yes.

2 Q. Now, at Louisville, as far as the
3 revenues go, isn't it true, sir, that unlike at
4 other schools like Michigan or Alabama or Ohio
5 State, at Louisville a vast majority of the 6 revenue comes from basketball? Isn't that right?7 A. Yes. Referring to -- as opposed to 8 football?9 Q. As opposed to combining football and 10 basketball.

11 A. Yes.

12 Q. And if it has been reported that
13 Louisville's basketball team accounts for 14 72 percent of the athletic department's booster
15 donations, does that number sound about right to 16 you based upon your personal knowledge having
17 coached at Louisville?

18 A. I don't know.

19 Q. Okay. Now, I want to read you a quote
20 and ask you if you agree or disagree based upon 21 your personal knowledge having coached at
22 Louisville.

1                   The modern legal understanding of
2 commerce is broad and surely encompasses the
3 transaction in which an athletic recruit exchanges
4 his labor and image and likeness rights for a
5 scholarship in a division I school because it is 6 undeniable that both parties -- the school and the 7 elite prospect -- to that exchange anticipate
8 economic gain from it.

9                   Would you agree or disagree with that
10 quote?

11                   MR. MORAN: Objection.

12                   THE WITNESS: I have no opinion on that 13 quote.

14 BY MR. MCLEOD:

15                   Q. Okay. When -- at the time Brian was 16 being recruited, was one of the criticisms of 17 Coach Pitino the perception that he did not like
18 one-and-done players?

19                   A. Yes.

20                   Q. And that perception of Coach Pitino was a
21 recruiting disadvantage for the school, was it
22 not?

Kenneth Laverne Johnson , Jr.
Bowen v. Adidas

April 14, 2021

Page 164

1 A. Yes.

2 Q. For example, Louisville's in-state rival,
3 Kentucky, is fairly well-known for one-and-done
4 recruiting classes, correct?

5 A. Correct.

6 Q. And isn't it true, sir, that one of the 7 reasons why Brian was so attracted to Louisville
8 and Adidas was because Pitino wanted to coach a
9 one-and-done player so he could get rid of that 10 public perception?11 A. Upon advice of counsel, I'm exercising my 12 Fifth Amendment privilege.13 Q. Okay. Let me first show you -- we've got 14 this marked as Exhibit 17 [sic], which are your 15 text messages. And they are text messages 137,
16 138, and 139.

17 A. Is this is in Exhibit 3?

18 Q. Yes, sir, it is.

19 A. Okay. And you said --

20 Q. I thought they put in all the --

21 MR. MCLEOD: Did you all put in all the 22 text messages? Mr. Forbes?

Page 165

1 THE WITNESS: One has -- I mean, it has

2 19 --

3 MR. FORBES: I don't think so.

4 MR. MCLEOD: Okay.

5 MR. FORBES: I mean, I think there are

6 other --

7 MR. MCLEOD: Okay.

8 MR. FORBES: There are other text
9 messages as well.

10 MR. MCLEOD: All right.

11 So we're loaded up now, sir.

12 THE WITNESS: Exhibit 4? Okay. 137?

13 MR. MCLEOD: Give me two seconds, please,
14 sir.

15 THE WITNESS: Okay.

16 (Johnson Deposition Exhibit 4 marked for 17 identification and attached to the 18 transcript.)

19 BY MR. MCLEOD:

20 Q. Okay. So Mr. Johnson, this is Exhibit 4
21 to your deposition.

22 And do you have these text messages up on

Page 166

1 your screen?

2 A. Yes.

3 Q. And let me first ask you -- I know they
4 asked you earlier -- but the phone number
5 associated with these text messages was, in fact,
6 your phone number back in May of 2017; is that
7 correct?8 A. Yes, if you're referring to
(301) 326-0616.9 Q. Yes, sir. And did the university or the 10 athletic department pay your phone bill or provide 11 your phone?12 A. They gave us a stipend for the phone bill.13 Q. Okay. So a part of your compensation as 14 an assistant coach at Louisville included them
15 paying for your cell phone; is that correct?

16 A. Yes.

17 Q. And as far as your compensation goes in 18 general, you had the benefit of being a fairly
19 highly paid assistant coach; is that right?

20 A. Yes.

1           Q. And I think your annual salary at the
2 time Brian lost his eligibility was approximately 3 $550,000. Does that sound right?

4           A. Yes.

5           MR. MORAN: Objection.

6 BY MR. MCLEOD:

7           Q. And I'm not criticizing you at all.
8 Everybody has a right to their own financial
9 affairs. I just wanted to make sure that the jury
10 understood that you were pretty high up on the 11 food chain at Louisville as it relates to the 12 basketball team; is that right?

13           A. As far as being on the staff? Yes.

14           Q. So there was Rick Pitino, and the person
15 with the next-most seniority within the basketball
16 program was yourself; is that correct?

17           A. I was there -- if you're talking about 18 basketball coaches, I was there the same amount of 19 time as David Padgett. If you're talking about 20 basketball staff, he had several members of the 21 staff that had been there many more years than I 22 had.

Page 168

1 Q. Well, maybe I didn't ask an artful
2 question.

3 Was there anybody else on the Louisville
4 basketball staff that made -- of course other than
5 Coach Pitino -- that made over a half a million
6 dollars a year?

7 A. No.

8 Q. Was there anybody else on Louisville
9 basketball staff or coaching staff that made even 10 close to half a million dollars a year other than 11 yourself and Coach Rick Pitino?

12 A. Yes, there was.

13 Q. And would that have been Mr. Padgett?

14 A. Yes.

15 Q. Okay. Were there any other highly
16 compensated members of the Louisville coaching
17 staff other than yourself, Mr. Padgett, and Coach
18 Rick Pitino?

19 A. I'm not certain how much Jordan Fair made
20 at that time.

21 Q. Okay.

22 A. I know that he was compensated well.

Page 169

1           Q. So let's go back to Exhibit 4. And could
2 you just share with me the -- in general, without
3 reading it yet, what is contained in the far
4 right-hand column as it relates to Brian?

5           A. I mean, I can tell you what it says. I
6 don't know what you're asking me.

7           Q. Is the information contained in the far
8 right-hand column of Exhibit 4 a scouting report
9 on Brian?

10          A. I was -- so it says to Coach G, which is 11 the strength coach. So it looks like there's 12 information about Brian that was sent to Coach G.

13          Q. All right. If you'll come back down to 14 the second paragraph -- and this is information
15 that you sent to Coach G?

16          A. Yes. That's what it says. Yes.

17          Q. And with regard to his rankings among 18 America's elite basketball product -- prospects in 19 the class of 2017, please share with us what you
20 communicated to Coach G.

3 Q. Okay. And does -- right above what you
4 just read, does it also indicate McDonald's -- he
5 was a McDonald's All American?

6 A. Played in McDonald American game, Jordan
7 Brand game, Ball is Life game.

8 Q. Okay. Now, having looked at Exhibit
9 Number 4 and seeing that you informed Coach G that
10 Brian was a five-star prospect, does that refresh
11 your memory with regard to whether or not he was,
12 in fact, a five-star recruit?

13 A. Yes.

14 Q. Now, when you sent this text message to 15 the strength and conditioning coach, did you send
16 this text in your capacity as -- and in the course
17 and scope of your employment with the Louisville
18 men's basketball team?

19 MR. FORBES: Objection.

20 BY MR. MCLEOD:

21 Q. This is not -- Mr. Johnson, this is not a
22 trick.

1           A. Okay.

2           Q. You're acting as a coach, and that's why
3 you're sending the text to the strength coach.
4 And if you don't know, don't answer. But that's 5 the purpose of the question. My purpose is not to 6 trick you in any way.

7           So when you sent this text to the 8 strength and conditioning coach, did you send this
9 text in the course and scope of your work as a
10 member of the Louisville basketball coaching
11 staff?

12           A. I don't remember if this was a forwarded
13 text message or if it was a text message that I
14 originated. But Coach G was a coworker of mine,
15 so I would be sending this text -- I sent this
16 text message to my co-worker.

17           Q. Okay. And the text message was on May 18 29th, 2017.

19           Do you see that?

20           A. Yes.

21           Q. And was May 29th, 2017, on the eve of 22 Brian's recruiting visit to the University of

1 Louisville?

2 A. Upon advice of counsel, I'm exercising my
3 Fifth Amendment privilege.

4 Q. Okay. I understand and respect that.

5 Isn't it true, sir, that strength and
6 conditioning was an important aspect of Brian's
7 selection of where to commit his basketball
8 talents and labors during his preparation for the 9 NBA? Isn't that true?

10 MR. MORAN: Objection.

11 THE WITNESS: Upon advice of counsel, I'm
12 exercising my Fifth Amendment privilege.

13 BY MR. MCLEOD:

14 Q. Okay. Does it appear from Exhibit
15 Number 4 that you were forwarding the strength and 16 conditioning coach basic information about Brian
17 so that the strength and conditioning coach could 18 be knowledgeable about this particular recruit
19 upon his visit to the school?20 A. Upon advice of counsel, I'm exercising my
21 Fifth Amendment privilege.

22 Q. Yes, sir. Now, if you'll come down past

Page 173

1 where it talks about the other schools he was
2 considering, could you read for me, please, sir,
3 the words that begin with, "Brian Bowen is a
4 nightmare matchup"?

5 A. Yes. "Brian Bowen is a nightmare matchup
6 who consistently completes sequences where he
7 rebounds the ball on the defensive, leads the 8 break, and makes a play for one of his teammates,
9 said La Lumiere head coach Shane Heirman. His 10 shooting ability is unmatched. He dominates the 11 glass on both ends of the floor."

12 Q. And Mr. Johnson, when you forwarded that
13 information along to the strength and conditioning
14 coach, did that information appear to you to be a
15 truthful and accurate assessment with regard to 16 Brian being a nightmare matchup?

17 A. Information was compiled -- are you
18 asking me if I agree with that assessment of the 19 quote from his head coach? His high school --

20 Q. Yes. Do you agree with the assessment
21 that you forwarded to the strength and
22 conditioning coach on May 29th, 2017?

Kenneth Laverne Johnson , Jr.
Bowen v. Adidas

April 14, 2021

Page 174

1           A. I would use different words, but I
2 definitely believed that he was a good player
3 and -- and he was a versatile player who shot the 4 ball really well and rebounded well for his 5 position.

6           Q. Yes, sir.

7           And then if you come down to the next
8 paragraph that begins with "Bowen is as skilled as 9 you will find" -- do you see that, sir?

10          A. Yes.

11          Q. Could you please read that into the 12 record for us?

13          A. Yes. "Bowen is as skilled as you will
14 find for his size and youth. He can feasibly play
15 any position on the floor other than center. He 16 is best on the wing, where he can create and 17 score. Bowen is very talented and has to be 18 considered one of the best freshman in the Midwest
19 if not, the country."

20          Q. And when you forwarded that assessment of 21 Brian's basketball ability to the strength coach
22 on the eve of Brian's visit to Louisville, did you

Kenneth Laverne Johnson , Jr.
Bowen v. Adidas

April 14, 2021

Page 175

1 have any reason to believe that assessment was
2 inaccurate for any reason?

3 A. Are you asking me, after reading that
4 quote, do I feel like -- do I agree with what's 5 said? Is that what you're asking me? Or are
6 you asking me specifically what you --

7 Q. Let me ask a better question.

8 Would you have forwarded that information
9 to the strength and conditioning coach if your
10 assessment of Brian's basketball ability differed
11 from that which is contained in this text message,
12 more particularly Exhibit 4?

13 A. Upon advice of counsel, I'm exercising my
14 Fifth Amendment privilege.

15 Q. Okay. Now, while we're on the strength
16 and conditioning, let me ask you, again, isn't it
17 true, sir, that Brian, despite his basketball
18 abilities, was -- had a thin frame?

19 A. You're asking me did -- okay.

20 Q. So let me ask a better question. Brian 21 was 6'7"; is that right?

22 A. Yes.

Kenneth Laverne Johnson , Jr.
Bowen v. Adidas

April 14, 2021

Page 176

1 Q. And he had a good wingspan; isn't that
2 correct?

3 A. I believe so. Yes.

4 Q. And he had broad shoulders, did he not?

5 A. I would say so. Yes.

6 Q. So he had a frame that, based upon your
7 coaching knowledge, could take additional weight,
8 strength, and muscle; isn't that correct?

9 A. Yes.

10 Q. And based upon your basketball knowledge,
11 strength, weight, and muscle is an important
12 development piece for elite prospects preparing
13 for the NBA -- their NBA careers; is that correct?

14 A. Yes.

15 Q. Now, Bowen, Sr. actually thanked you once
16 Brian got on campus for scheduling an appointment
17 with Brian to speak to one of the team's 18 nutritionists.

19 Do you remember that?

20 A. Upon advice of counsel, I'm exercising my
21 Fifth Amendment privilege.

4 Q. Mr. Johnson, do you see text message

6 A. Yes.

7 Q. All right. And is this a text message
8 that was sent July 21st, 2017, from your phone to 9 Brian's father, Mr. Bowen, Sr.?

10 A. Yes.

11 Q. And the date of this text is roughly six
12 weeks after Brian signed a four-year contract with 13 Louisville wherein he committed his basketball
14 labor and services; is that correct?

15 MR. FORBES: Objection.

16 THE WITNESS: Upon advice of counsel, I'm
17 exercising my Fifth Amendment privilege.

18 BY MR. MCLEOD:

19 Q. Okay. At text message 348, this text
20 message that you sent to Bowen, Sr. on that day
21 states what, please, sir? If you could read that 22 for the record.

1 A. "Nutritionist meeting set."

2 Q. Okay. And is it true, sir, that in this
3 text message you were letting Brian's father know
4 that you had followed through with setting up an
5 appointment for Brian to meet with a nutritionist
6 once on campus?7 A. Upon advice of counsel, I'm exercising my
8 Fifth Amendment privilege.9 Q. Okay. When -- the phone number again
10 associated with this text message was your phone
11 number; is that correct?

12 A. From 348?

13 Q. Yes, sir.

14 A. Yes.

15 Q. And you sent this text message in your 16 capacity as an assistant basketball coach for the 17 Louisville men's basketball team; is that correct?

18 A. Yes. I was...

19 Q. All right. If you'll go down to text
20 message 350, please, sir.

21 A. Okay.

22 Q. And is this a text message from Brian's

Kenneth Laverne Johnson , Jr.
Bowen v. Adidas

April 14, 2021

1 father to you dated July 21st, 2017?

2 A. Yes.

3 Q. And did Bowen, Sr. refer to you sometimes
4 in text messages as Ken?

5 A. Upon advice of counsel, I'm exercising my
6 Fifth Amendment privilege.

7 Q. Okay. Fair enough.

8 Could you read for the record, please,
9 sir, the contents of the text message that 10 Mr. Bowen sent to your phone, which was paid for 11 by the university, on July 21st, 2017, at 12 a.m.?

13 A. Okay. It says, on 350 -- it says, "Hey,
14 Ken, thanks a lot. Because if he gets that 15 nutrition down, his muscles and strength gain will 16 skyrocket."

17 Q. Okay. Now, as far as your having worked
18 with youth basketball players and elite basketball 19 players, is consistent physical training an
20 important part of a player's overall development?

21 A. Yes.

22 Q. Based upon your work in the AAU circuit

Kenneth Laverne Johnson , Jr.
Bowen v. Adidas

April 14, 2021

Page 181

1 and at elite levels of college basketball, are
2 competitive minutes important to a player's
3 development in preparation for the NBA?

4 A. Yes.

5 Q. Based upon your having worked at an elite
6 program in college basketball, is it important for 7 elite prospects like Brian, in preparing for the 8 NBA draft, to have good coaching?

9 A. Yes.

10 Q. And Mr. Johnson, is good coaching one of 11 the things that you were good at?

12 A. In my opinion, yes.

13 Q. And is it because one of the things that 14 drew you to the coaching profession was helping 15 players reach their maximum potential; is that
16 correct?

17 A. Yes.

18 Q. And helping players reach their maximum
19 potential was personally rewarding, wasn't it,
20 sir? Forget about money. Just that brought you a
21 level of satisfaction being able to help a player
22 reach his maximum potential; is that correct?

Kenneth Laverne Johnson , Jr.
Bowen v. Adidas

April 14, 2021

Page 182

1 A. Yes. I believe it to be my purpose.

2 Q. Okay. Now, in college basketball, you
3 all are pretty much sticklers when it comes to 4 fundamentals. Would you agree with that?

5 MR. FORBES: Objection.

6 THE WITNESS: Are you asking college
7 basketball in general? Or --

8 BY MR. MCLEOD:

9 Q. At Louisville.

10 A. Yes. The coaching staff at Louisville
11 under Rick Pitino, yes, we were known as a
12 development program.13 Q. For example, I was watching March Madness
14 this year. Wally Szczerbiak, talking about
15 Coach Pitino, said that he went to Coach Pitino's
16 camp when he was in the eighth grade, and even to 17 this day he still remembers some of the 18 fundamentals that Coach Pitino taught him and that
19 turned him into an NBA player.20 Is that type of assessment of Coach
21 Pitino by Wally Szczerbiak consistent with what 22 you understood Coach Pitino's reputation to be

Kenneth Laverne Johnson , Jr.
Bowen v. Adidas

April 14, 2021

1 with regard to development of elite prospects?

2 A. Yes.

3 Q. And is it probably frustrating at times
4 that, when kids get to college, they don't know
5 how to play defense? Is that right?

6 A. Yes.

7 Q. And it was probably frustrating to a
8 certain extent, but when these elite prospects got 9 to college for the first time, they really didn't
10 know how to train, did they?

11 A. They didn't.

12 Q. And is part of the importance of 13 preparing for the NBA at elite programs like 14 Louisville getting elite prospects accustomed to 15 consistent rigorous training?

16 A. Yes.

17 Q. Because isn't it true, sir, that, for 18 most kids, if not all, this is the first time that 19 they have lived away from home?

20 A. Yes.

21 Q. And with any type of development, is it
22 important for players like Brian to develop the

1 ability to read and watch -- study game film?

2 A. Yes.

3 Q. Based upon you having worked in high
4 school basketball and youth basketball, would it
5 be fair to say there's a lot more film study going
6 on at programs like Louisville as compared to your
7 average high school basketball team?

8 A. Yes.

9 Q. Now, with regard to fundamentals,
10 offensive and defensive schemes, would it be fair
11 to say that the coaching and preparation elite
12 players like Brian get at places like Louisville
13 is invaluable to their preparation for the NBA?

14 MR. MORAN: Objection.

15 THE WITNESS: In my opinion, yeah.

16 BY MR. MCLEOD:

17 Q. So for example, if you were the head
18 coach of Louisville today and a five-star recruit
19 asked you whether he should play basketball at 20 Louisville or go through the G League, strictly 21 from a basketball preparation standpoint, what
22 would your advice be to that elite prospect?

Kenneth Laverne Johnson , Jr.
Bowen v. Adidas

April 14, 2021

Page 185

1 MR. MORAN: Objection.

2 MR. FORBES: Objection.

3 THE WITNESS: That's hard for me to say.

4 I think I would need to know all the factors that
5 are associated with that particular prospect. I
6 mean, I would love to say I would believe in my
7 personal development skills and the platform that
8 I would have for a player, but it's unfair to say
9 unless I know all the circumstances surrounding 10 that particular student athlete.

11 BY MR. MCLEOD:

12 Q. Okay. When programs like Louisville
13 compete with other programs for players like
14 Brian, is it fair to say that free -- you know,
15 traditional economic principles are not at play,
16 i.e., price?

17 MR. FORBES: Objection.

18 THE WITNESS: Can you repeat that? I'm 19 sorry.

20 BY MR. MCLEOD:

21 Q. Yeah.

22 So when Louisville pitches itself to

Kenneth Laverne Johnson , Jr.
Bowen v. Adidas

April 14, 2021

Page 186

1       elite prospects like Brian, the essential focus of
2       that pitch is related to the basketball services
3       that the school offers; is that right?

4           A. Basketball is a big part of it.

5           Q. Okay. And schools -- unlike in a
6       for-profit setting, schools can't compete with one
7       another with regard to price because the price is 8       capped by the NCAA; isn't that correct?

9           MR. FORBES: Objection.

10           THE WITNESS: Are you referring to the 11       tuition?

12       BY MR. MCLEOD:

13           Q. Yes, sir.

14           A. The scholarship is -- will cover all
15       room, books, and board.

16           Q. So in a normal circumstance, consumers
17       make purchasing decisions oftentimes based upon
18       price. You generally understand and recognize 19       that, don't you?

20           A. Consumers?

21           MR. FORBES: Objection.

Page 187

1 BY MR. MCLEOD:

2 Q. I'm sorry, sir?

3 A. You said consumers?

4 Q. Yes, sir.

5 A. Yes. Price. I would agree with that.

6 Q. All right. And for elite basketball
7 products [sic], the topic of tuition, room, books,
8 and math class, that rarely, if ever, comes up.

9 MR. MORAN: Objection.

10 THE WITNESS: Rarely do we -- rarely
11 have, in my experience, have I discussed what the 12 tuition cost is for a high-profile student
13 athlete.

14 BY MR. MCLEOD:

15 Q. Yes, sir. And rather, your personal
16 experience has been the topic that is discussed
17 between you, members of Pitino's staff, and that 18 elite prospect relate almost exclusively to 19 basketball; isn't that correct?

20 A. Yes.

21 MR. MCLEOD: Okay. Let's take just a
22 quick break, maybe ten minutes. I want to make

7 VIDEO TECHNICIAN: The time is 2:45 p.m.
8 This begins unit number 4. We're on the record.

9 MR. MCLEOD: Mr. Johnson, are you ready?

10 THE WITNESS: Yes.

11 BY MR. MCLEOD:

12 Q. Mr. Johnson, before I turn to Exhibit 5,
13 let me go back real quick and ask you this.

14 Remember when we had talked about the two 15 most important decisions a basketball player makes 16 they make while they're still an amateur?

17 Do you remember that?

18 A. Yes.

19 Q. With regard to the second question on 20 when to forgo their NCAA eligibility and go
21 through the draft, what are the deadlines that the 22 NCAA allows college players with regards to

Page 189

1       pursuing whether or not they want to go through
2       the draft and when they have to return back to
3       school in order to maintain their eligibility?

4                    MR. MORAN: Object to the form.

5                    THE WITNESS: In my understanding, those
6       deadlines changed this year. I know they're
7       especially different now that there's a pandemic
8       going on.

9       BY MR. MCLEOD:

10                  Q. Yes, sir.

11                  A. Back in 2017, what I recall was the 12       player had to enter their name into the draft
13       officially with the NBA to let them know that they 14       can be evaluated. And then there was a deadline
15       of sometime in May -- and I don't know the exact
16       time -- where they would have to determine whether
17       they're going to stay in the draft or return back
18       to school and remove themselves from the draft.

19                  Q. Okay. So it is your -- it has been your
20       personal knowledge that the NCAA allows a window
21       of time for college players to be evaluated by NBA
22       teams without fully committing themselves to the

1 draft; is that correct?

2 A. Yes.

3 Q. And my understanding of that window of 4 time is generally right after the season in early
5 spring, and the player is allowed to be evaluated
6 and get information, but they must return back to 7 school sometime before June.

8 Does that sound about right to you?

9 A. Yes.

10 Q. And that window of time that the NCAA
11 allows is a very important window of time for 12 elite prospects like Brian; is that right?

13 A. Yes.

14 Q. And could you share with me, please, sir,
15 why that window of time is so important to an 16 amateur player's decision when and whether to 17 forgo his NCAA eligibility and begin his NBA
18 career?

19 A. Well, that period of time is usually 20 spent -- a lot of prospects will get invited to 21 try out for the pro teams or go to their workouts
22 so the pro scouts can watch them play and then

Kenneth Laverne Johnson, Jr.
Bowen v. Adidas

April 14, 2021

Page 191

1 give them feedback on where they project their
2 potential draft status to be.

3 Q. And based upon -- has it been your
4 personal knowledge that, based upon the feedback
5 that these elite college players get, they use
6 that feedback and evaluation to ultimately make
7 decisions whether to begin their NBA career or to
8 stay in school in hopes of improving their stock
9 and their chances of being a first-round
10 selection?

11 A. Yes.

12 Q. All right. Now, for somebody like Brian,
13 isn't it true that trying to find the right
14 basketball fit is a very important component of 15 any elite prospect's decisionmaking process with 16 regard to where to commit his basketball labor and 17 services?

18 A. In my opinion, yes.

19 MR. MORAN: Object to form.

20 MR. FORBES: Objection.

21 BY MR. MCLEOD:

22 Q. And was it your experience, generally,

Page 192

1 that the elite prospects were very selective in
2 ultimately deciding where to commit their
3 eligibility because they wanted to make sure that
4 the particular school was, in fact, a good
5 basketball fit with regard to their preparation
6 and entry into the NBA?

7 MR. FORBES: Objection.

8 THE WITNESS: In my experience, yes.

9 BY MR. MCLEOD:

10 Q. Now, some of the lawyers in this case
11 have insinuated directly and other times
12 indirectly that Brian somehow did something wrong
13 with being patient in the selection process of 14 where to commit his basketball labor and services.

15 Do you remember those questions?

16 MR. MORAN: Objection.

17 THE WITNESS: Are you asking me
18 specifically about Brian or about student athletes
19 in general taking their time?

20 BY MR. MCLEOD:

21 Q. Well, I'm asking you about elite
22 prospects in general.

Kenneth Laverne Johnson , Jr.
Bowen v. Adidas

April 14, 2021

Page 193

1 A. Can you repeat the question for me?

2 Q. Yes.

3 Are most elite prospects fairly
4 deliberate in making the decision on where to
5 commit their basketball labor and talent?

6 MR. MORAN: Objection.

7 THE WITNESS: In my experience, what I
8 found is that the players that are in a position
9 to be selective, they do take their time in
10 selecting a school because they want to make sure
11 that when they go to that particular school, that 12 there is the playing time available that they 13 would be looking for. And a lot of times they -- 14 some of those players are waiting to see if the 15 other prospects that are currently on that team
16 ultimately decide to go pro.

17 BY MR. MCLEOD:

18 Q. Right. And so -- actually, in Brian's
19 case, there was one of your players, Donovan
20 Mitchell, that played on the 2016 team; is that
21 right?

22 A. You're asking me about in Brian's case or

Kenneth Laverne Johnson , Jr.
Bowen v. Adidas

April 14, 2021

Page 194

1 are you just asking me about Donovan --

2 Q. No. Did Donovan Mitchell play on the
3 Louisville Cardinal men's basketball team during
4 the 2016 season?

5 A. Yes.

6 Q. And did Donovan Mitchell take advantage
7 of that window of time after the season to be
8 evaluated by NBA teams in order to make a decision
9 whether to remain at Louisville or whether to 10 enter the NBA draft?

11 A. Yes, he did.

12 Q. And with regard to Donovan Mitchell, it
13 wasn't until late spring that he ultimately
14 decided to forgo his NCAA eligibility and declare
15 for the draft; isn't that correct?

16 A. Yes.

17 Q. And based upon your personal knowledge of 18 having coached Donovan Mitchell, one of the 19 reasons why he chose to declare for the draft at 20 that time was because he was projected to be a
21 first-round pick; is that correct?

22 A. Yes. He went into it not knowing where

April 14, 2021

Page 195

1 he would be --

2 MR. FORBES: Objection.

3 THE WITNESS: -- but then he ultimately,
4 from my opinion, decided to stay in because he
5 felt like he was going to be a first-round draft
6 pick.

7 BY MR. MCLEOD:

8 Q. Okay. And based upon your personal
9 knowledge of having coached Donovan Mitchell, was 10 it your understanding that based upon the feedback
11 and evaluations that he got from NBA teams, that 12 it was his time to go because he believed he would 13 be a first round pick?

14 A. Yes.

15 Q. And did Mr. Mitchell end up being the 16 13th selection in that year's NBA draft?

17 A. Yes.

18 Q. And with any first-round selection in the 19 NBA draft, does that guarantee the player's
20 salaries for at least two years?

21 A. Yes.

22 Q. And under the collective bargaining

Kenneth Laverne Johnson , Jr.

1 agreement with the NBA, does that first-round
2 draft status also give the clubs a third and
3 fourth year one-year option with regard to that
4 initial rookie contract?

5 A. Yes.

6 MR. FORBES: Objection.

7 BY MR. MCLEOD:

8 Q. Now, for some elite players, I would
9 imagine there are some difficulties getting them
10 into school for academic reasons.

11 Have you seen those occasions during the 12 course of your career?

13 A. Not only with the elite prospects. But,
14 you know, different student athletes have
15 different challenges.

16 Q. Yes, sir. And I don't want to ask you
17 anybody's names. I just want to know, generally,
18 are there circumstances with basketball players
19 where it is a difficult task getting them admitted
20 into an institution like Louisville for academic 21 reasons?

22 A. Yeah, I've found that -- it's really

Kenneth Laverne Johnson, Jr.
Bowen v. Adidas

April 14, 2021

Page 197

1 dependent on the individual case-by-case scenario.
2 But there are some student athletes who -- because
3 we're talking about high academic institutions
4 that -- you know, they may not meet the general
5 standards with their grade point average and/or 6 their test scores. So, you know, they have to 7 make sure that they meet those standards before
8 they would be able to gain admittance to that
9 university.

10 Q. Yes, sir. And so for a lot of players,
11 they don't have the benefit of being able to wait
12 to the last minute to commit to a team because the 13 entry into the school takes a lot longer because 14 of academic reasons; is that correct?

15 MR. MORAN: Objection.

16 MR. FORBES: Objection.

17 THE WITNESS: I mean, that's a
18 generalization. I can't really...

19 BY MR. MCLEOD:

20 Q. Do you disagree with that generalization?

21 A. I, personally, don't disagree with that.

22 Q. Okay. And in Brian Bowen's case, he had

2 MR. MORAN: Objection.

3 THE WITNESS: I don't really remember the 4 specifics of --

5 BY MR. MCLEOD:

6 Q. Okay. Based upon your personal knowledge
7 of Brian, were there any issues with regard to his
8 academic record, his test scores, and getting him
9 admitted at Louisville University?10 A. Upon advice of counsel, I'm exercising my 11 Fifth Amendment privilege.12 Q. Okay. Now, let's go to Exhibit 5, 13 please, sir; in particular text number 156.

14 A. 156? Okay.

15 Q. Yes, sir. Now -- so, again, this is a
16 transcription of text message sent from your phone
17 to Brian, Jr. on September 8, 2016; is that
18 correct?

19 A. Yes.

20 Q. And when you sent this text to Brian, you
21 did it in your capacity as a coach for the
22 Louisville basketball team; is that correct?

Kenneth Laverne Johnson , Jr.
Bowen v. Adidas

April 14, 2021

Page 199

1 A. Yes.

2 Q. And does the transcription of the text
3 message that you forwarded to Brian on that date
4 and at that time fairly and accurately depict
5 the -- the text that you did, in fact, send to 6 him?

7 A. Yes.

8 Q. Could you read for the record, please,
9 sir, the main points that you outlined with regard
10 to why Brian should choose Louisville regarding 11 whether Louisville in particular was a good
12 basketball fit for Brian?13 A. "The main points are immediate playing
14 time, featured scorer, playing the 2 and 3
15 position. We have five players 6'10" and bigger,
16 so never the 4. The fact that he wants to coach a
17 one-and-done so people stop saying he doesn't like
18 them or won't let them be. Plus scandal being 19 behind us."20 Q. Okay. Now, Mr. Johnson, at the top of 21 it, immediate playing time, was there any doubt in 22 your mind that Brian Bowen would get immediate

1 playing time as a member of the Louisville men's
2 basketball team?

3 A. Are you asking about the time that I
4 wrote this text message?

5 Q. Yes, sir.

6 A. No, I didn't believe so.

7 Q. You didn't think there was any issue.
8 This kid was going to come to Louisville, he was
9 going to start, and he was going to be a
10 significant part of the 2017 season's team; is 11 that correct?

12 MR. MORAN: Objection.

13 THE WITNESS: On September the 8th, 2016,
14 yes, that's what I believed.

15 BY MR. MCLEOD:

16 Q. Okay. Now, the reference in here
17 regarding playing the 2 and the 3 position, for 18 players of Brian's size, at 6'7", are they 19 versatile in that they can play multiple positions
20 on the floor?

21 A. Yes. I felt like -- well, I felt like
22 Brian had versatility to play multiple positions.

Kenneth Laverne Johnson , Jr.
Bowen v. Adidas

April 14, 2021

Page 201

1 I think that his rebounding ability would lead to,
2 for a lot of programs, having to play the
3 power forward position, which wouldn't necessarily
4 help him in his ultimate development of being a
5 wing player if he was to have pro potential and 6 aspirations. I felt like he needed to play more
7 of a guard position than solely be used for his 8 rebounding abilities.

9 Q. Yes, sir. And was one of the Brian's
10 concerns that if he went to the wrong program and 11 they tried to make him play the 4 position, that 12 that would inhibit his preparation for the NBA,
13 and is that why he was adamant that he believed he 14 should be a 2 or 3 guard?

15 MR. MORAN: Objection.

16 THE WITNESS: I don't -- I don't remember
17 a specific conversation, you know, at that point
18 with Brian about that topic.

19 BY MR. MCLEOD:

20 Q. Okay. With regard to your text to him
21 indicating that he would play the 2 or 3 position,
22 was one of the reasons why you told him that he

Bowen v. Adidas

1 would play one of the 2 or 3 positions is because
2 of his shooting ability?

3 A. Yes.

4 Q. Brian had a pretty good outside shot,
5 didn't he, Mr. Johnson?

6 A. I felt like he was one of the better
7 prospects in the country shooting the ball.

8 Q. And when we say one of the better
9 prospects in shooting, he was a natural shooter;
10 is that fair to say?

11 MR. MORAN: Objection.

12 THE WITNESS: In my opinion, yes.

13 BY MR. MCLEOD:

14 Q. Sir?

15 A. In my opinion, yes.

16 Q. Okay. Now, the second part that
17 indicates the fact that he wants to coach a
18 one-and-done so people stop saying he doesn't like
19 them, were you referring to Coach Pitino with 20 those words texted to Brian on September 8, 2016?

21 A. Yes.

22 Q. And would it be fair to say, sir, that,

Kenneth Laverne Johnson , Jr.
Bowen v. Adidas

April 14, 2021

Page 203

1 in addition to Brian's basketball abilities, one
2 of the attractions for Coach Pitino was to get
3 this stigma off his back that he didn't like
4 one-and-done players; is that accurate?

5 MR. MORAN: Objection.

6 THE WITNESS: That was my opinion. It's
7 never something that Coach Pitino said to me
8 directly.

9 BY MR. MCLEOD:

10 Q. I understand. And that was your opinion
11 based upon being involved in the intensive 12 recruiting battles for the elite prospects across
13 the country; is that correct?

14 A. Yes.

15 Q. And in -- being involved in those intense
16 battles for the elite prospects, you came to learn
17 what your competitors were saying about your
18 coach; is that correct?

19 A. Yes. In the form of the term "negative 20 recruiting," that was one of the things that they 21 talked about.

22 Q. Yes, sir. Now, if you go down to text

Kenneth Laverne Johnson , Jr.

1 message 164, this is a text, again, from -- well,
2 let me ask you. Is this a text from you to Brian
3 dated July 23rd, 2016, at just after midnight?

4 A. Is it after midnight East Coast time
5 or -- I don't know what that time is.

6 But yes, I see the text message you're
7 referring to, 164.

8 Q. Okay. And did you, in fact, initiate 9 this text to Brian on that date at that time as 10 depicted in Exhibit 5?

11 A. Yes.

12 Q. And did you initiate that text in your
13 capacity as an assistant coach for the Louisville
14 men's basketball team?

15 A. Yes.

16 Q. Now, it has been argued in this case that 17 Brian might not make the men's basketball team.

18 Do you find that argument to have any 19 merit, or do you find that argument to be wholly
20 without merit?

21 MR. MORAN: Objection.

22 THE WITNESS: I need you to repeat --

Page 205

1 explain that question. I didn't really understand
2 what you were saying.

3 BY MR. MCLEOD:

4 Q. Was there any doubt in your mind at any
5 time during the recruitment of Brian Bowen that he
6 was going to play a substantial role in the team's
7 success the following season?

8 A. If you're referencing my thoughts from 9 2016, that -- would I -- I don't -- I would have
10 assumed that Brian Bowen would have been a
11 valuable member of the basketball program.

12 Q. Okay. And if you would read for the 13 record text 164, please, sir.

14 A. "Yeah. We need a featured scorer for 15 next year. Searching for a potential early entry
16 pro."

17 Q. All right. And when you sent that text
18 to Brian, were you referring to Brian as the 19 featured scorer that Louisville was searching for?

20 A. Yes.

21 Q. And when you sent that text to Brian in 22 your capacity as assistant basketball coach at

Kenneth Laverne Johnson , Jr.
Bowen v. Adidas

April 14, 2021

Page 206

1 Louisville, did you fully believe at that time
2 that Brian would be an early entry pro?

3 A. At that time, it would be too early for
4 me to tell. It was common recruiting language
5 that I may use. I felt like he had -- with my 6 limited analysis of his game, I felt like he had
7 the potential to be a very good college basketball
8 player who had pro potential --

9 Q. And --

10 A. -- but I couldn't --

11 Q. Would you agree with me, sir, that at the 12 time Brian committed to play for Louisville, it
13 was substantially [sic] certain that at some point
14 he would be drafted in the first round of the NBA
15 draft?

16 MR. MORAN: Objection.

17 MR. FORBES: Objection.

18 BY MR. MCLEOD:

19 Q. You can answer, Mr. Johnson.

20 A. You're asking me about a period of 21 time -- upon advice of counsel, I'm exercising my
22 Fifth Amendment privilege.

Page 207

1           Q. Okay. Are you familiar with the NBA
2 projection website known as NBADraft.net?

3           A. Yes. I've seen it before.

4           Q. Is it a fairly well -- reputable resource
5 for people within the industry as it relates to 6 the evaluation and a projection of NBA draft
7 picks?

8           MR. MORAN: Objection.

9           THE WITNESS: I'm not really well versed
10 on those websites. In my opinion, I would think 11 that it would be, you know, on par with some of 12 the other sites.

13 BY MR. MCLEOD:

14           Q. Okay. And if NBADraft.net projected
15 Brian as the 18th pick in the 2018 NBA draft,
16 would you have any reason to disagree with that 17 projection based upon your personal knowledge of 18 Brian's basketball ability?

19           MR. MORAN: Objection.

5 upon your personal knowledge of Brian's basketball

6 Q. Well, let's go to tab number -- let's
7 see. We'll get to you talking about, hey -- you
8 know, haters can hate, let's get the popcorn,

9 Q. Okay. Was that a text that you sent to

15 A. Yes.

16 Q. And did you believe at that time what you

18 A. Yes.

19 Q. Mr. Johnson, isn't it true that, in fact,

18 for the Louisville men's basketball team to 19 Brian's mother on May 25th, 2017?

20 A. Yes.

21 Q. And do you remember, sir, that one of the 22 things that you all were concerned about was

Page 212

1 making Brian's mother feel comfortable with
2 Louisville as a destination because of the 3 Strippergate scandal?

4 A. Upon advice of counsel, I'm exercising my

6 Q. Okay. Mr. Johnson, did the Strippergate
7 scandal involve allegations that, from 2010 until 8 2014, Louisville recruits were lured with
9 prostitutes and female dancers?

10 A. Yes.

11 Q. And did Strippergate -- did the 12 Strippergate scandal involve allegations that the 13 strippers and the prostitutes were provided in the 14 men's dormitory or in the basketball facility?

15 A. My understanding about the -- strippers
16 were provided in the dormitory. I do recall
17 hearing that. I never heard about them being 18 provided in the men's basketball facility.

19 Q. Okay. Do you have any personal knowledge

10          A. I have no knowledge of that.

11          Q. Would it surprise you if Adidas provided
12 some of the cash needed to provide this rather 13 inappropriate recruiting pitch to young high
14 school kids? Would that surprise you if Adidas
15 was involved?

16          A. I don't have an opinion on that.

5 Q. Okay. Do you recall that the
6 Strippergate first became public sometime in the 7 calendar year 2016?

8 A. I don't recall exact -- I don't recall
9 the year or the time when it was made public.

10 Q. Okay. If it's been reported that it
11 first became public in 2016, do you have any 12 personal knowledge that would disagree with that

14 A. I don't.

15 Q. All right. Could it have been reported
16 earlier, sometime in October of 2015?

17 A. I don't recall.

18 Q. Okay. You do recall, though, sir, that
19 the Strippergate scandal became public while Brian
20 was in high school; isn't that correct?

21 A. Yes. That would make sense.

17 University of Louisville know that it was 18 uncomfortable for corporate governance or business
19 ethics reasons to be in a contract with the

1 Q. Yes, sir.

2 Do you have any personal knowledge of
3 anybody from Adidas ever coming to University of 4 Louisville and indicating any reservations about
5 being -- continued involvement with the university
6 in light of the Strippergate scandal?

7 A. I don't have any personal knowledge.

8 Q. Okay. Because in fact, Adidas, after the 9 Strippergate scandal, renewed their contract with 10 the University of Louisville, did they not?11 A. I'm not sure of the dealings with Adidas
12 and Louisville.13 Q. Are you generally aware, sir, that 14 sometime after the Strippergate scandal, the 15 for-profit company Adidas entered into a $160
16 million deal with the University of Louisville,
17 which at that time was the fourth largest sports
18 apparel contract in the country?

6 Q. Okay. Now, going back to tab number 20,
7 and more particularly text message number 109.

8 A. Okay.

9 Q. This is a text from you to Carrie; is
10 that correct?

11 A. Yes.

12 Q. And could you share with us, please, sir,
13 what you text her on May 25th, 2017, in the leadup
14 to her coming to Louisville campus for Brian's
15 official visit?

16 A. 109?

17 Q. Yes, sir.

18 A. "Patience is a virtue. This will be a
19 memorable story. I always tell people you may not

5 message -- the transcription of that text message
6 fairly and accurately depict that which you text
7 Brian's mother on May 25th, 2017?

8 A. Yes.

9 Q. And I am assuming, sir, that you would
10 not have indicated anything untruthful to her on 11 purpose, would you?

12 A. No.

13 Q. And so you did, in fact, believe, as an
14 assistant coach at University of Louisville, that 15 it was an honor to be considered by Brian as the 16 destination where he would commit his basketball
17 talent and services; is that correct?

18 A. Yes.

9 Q. And again, is this a text message that
10 you sent to Brian's mother on May 26th, 2017?

11 A. Yes.

12 Q. And I don't know if you were aware of 13 this, but some of the defendants in this case,
14 even the ones who have pled the Fifth for fear of 15 going to federal prison longer than they already

6 you to adopt a few more, or at least do a seminar
7 on how to raise a young man in today's world."8 Q. And Mr. Johnson, you did, in fact,

11 BY MR. MCLEOD:

12 Q. Yeah. Somebody who never gets in the 14 A. Not traditionally, no.

15 Q. Right. And based upon your coaching at

3 A. I believe so. Yes.

4 Q. And based upon your coaching background
5 and watching those Pelican games, do you believe
6 that one of the reasons for the team's new success

16 a McDonald's All American and a five-star recruit
17 and that player did not make the basketball team?
18 Did that ever happen in your career that you're 19 aware of?

20 A. Not in my career.

21 Q. Okay. Has it been your experience in 22 your career that the McDonald's All Americans and

1 five-star recruits are the creme de la creme and
2 they make immediate impacts at the college level
3 in preparation for the NBA? Has that been your 4 experience, sir?

5 MR. MORAN: Objection.

6 THE WITNESS: In my experience, the
7 high-profile recruits contribute.

8 BY MR. MCLEOD:

9 Q. Immediately. Isn't that correct, sir?

10 MR. MORAN: Objection.

11 THE WITNESS: The majority of them. Yes.

12 BY MR. MCLEOD:

13 Q. Now, for Brian's recruiting class at 14 Louisville for 2017, he was the only five-star
15 recruit in that year's class that committed their 16 athletic services and basketball talents; isn't
17 that correct?

18 MR. MORAN: Objection.

19 THE WITNESS: Upon advice of counsel, I'm
20 exercising my Fifth Amendment privilege.

21 BY MR. MCLEOD:

22 Q. Isn't it true, sir, that Brian was one of

2 considering all classes, freshman through senior,

4 MR. FORBES: Objection.

5 THE WITNESS: I am not certain.

6 BY MR. MCLEOD:

7 Q. Isn't it true, sir, that when Brian
8 committed to the University of Louisville, he was 9 at that time the most highly decorated, highly
10 ranked player that Louisville had on its men's 11 basketball team, regardless of class?

12 MR. MORAN: Objection.

13 MR. FORBES: Objection.

14 THE WITNESS: I'm not certain.

15 BY MR. MCLEOD:

16 Q. Can you share with me, please, sir, any 17 player who was on that Louisville roster who was 18 more highly decorated or was more highly rated
19 than Brian in June 2017?

20 A. I can't.

21 MR. FORBES: Objection.

22 MR. MCLEOD: Do you want to take a five

2 prefer to keep going?

3 THE WITNESS: I would prefer to keep 4 going.

5 MR. MCLEOD: Okay.

6 MR. MORAN: Mullins, let me ask, how much
7 longer do you think you have? Because it may make
8 sense to take a bathroom break now if you're going
9 to go a while longer.

10 MR. MCLEOD: Okay. Let's just take a
11 break. I don't want this to be an endurance test
12 for anybody. I'm sorry it's taking longer, but,
13 you know, just -- I've got to do what I've got to 14 do. So let's take a quick break.

15 MR. MORAN: And real fast, before we go
16 off the record, can we put on that stip that we
17 talked about on the last break that an objection
18 to form for one is an objection to form for all?
19 Does that work for you?

20 MR. MCLEOD: Yeah, I don't have a problem
21 with that.

22 MS. BARBIER: Can I just ask for planning

2 Can I -- this is Debbie. Can I just ask,
3 for planning purposes who is going to have
4 questions after Mullins, if anybody?5 MR. MORAN: This is Wes. As of now, I do
6 not have any follow-up questions.

7 MS. BARBIER: Okay.

8 MS. GOODING: I don't have any.

9 MS. BARBIER: Just checking. Thank you.

10 MR. FORBES: Debbie, I'll probably have a
11 couple -- just a couple of follow-up questions.

12 MS. BARBIER: Okay.

13 MR. FORBES: I can go after you.

1 BY MR. MCLEOD:

2 Q. Mr. Johnson, I'm going to refer you now
3 to Exhibit 13. Tab 6.

4 Do you have that up, sir?

5 A. Yes.

6 Q. And could you scroll down, please, sir,
7 to text message number 174?

8 Are you there, sir?

9 A. Yes.

10 Q. All right. And this is a text message
11 that was sent by defendant Christian Dawkins,
12 who's already been convicted for this underlying
13 conduct, to you on May 30th, 2017.

14 Do you see that?

15 A. Yes.

16 Q. And could you read for us what the text
17 messages that you received stated?

18 A. 174?

19 Q. Yes, sir.

20 A. "The goal is to have him back by
21 Thursday. But going to let him take the night so
22 he thinks he came to the decision by himself."

Kenneth Laverne Johnson , Jr.
Bowen v. Adidas

April 14, 2021

Page 245

1           Q. Okay. Mr. Johnson, did you receive that
2 text in your capacity as an assistant basketball
3 coach for the Louisville men's basketball team on 4 May 30th, 2017?

5           A. Yes.

6           Q. Now, later that day, at 6:44 p.m., and in
7 particular text number 169, did you send Christian
8 Dawkins a text indicating whether or not you
9 anticipating getting a good night's sleep or being 10 rather restless over the anticipation of the 11 university securing the rights to Brian's
12 basketball talents and labor?

13           A. 169, "I'm not going to sleep until you
14 tell me he is coming."

15           Q. And was that a text message that you, in 16 fact, sent to Mr. Dawkins on May 30, 2017?

17           A. Yes.

18           Q. And did you do so in your capacity as 19 assistant coach of the Louisville men's basketball 20 team?

21           A. Yes.

22           Q. Now, isn't it true, sir, that there was

Kenneth Laverne Johnson , Jr.
Bowen v. Adidas

April 14, 2021

Page 246

1 some conversation about enrolling Brian before he
2 made his decision so that he would be stuck and
3 bound by that commitment to University of
4 Louisville?

5 MR. FORBES: Objection.

6 THE WITNESS: Upon advice of counsel, I'm
7 exercising my Fifth Amendment privilege.

8 (Johnson Deposition Exhibits 14 and 15
9 marked for identification and attached to

11 BY MR. MCLEOD:

12 Q. Let me show you Exhibit Number 14.

13 A. Okay.

14 Q. And if you would, please, sir, in 15 particular, text message number 151.

16 A. Uh-huh.

17 Q. And is this a text message that was sent
18 by you to Christian Dawkins?

19 A. It says, "Tugs doesn't need to know, but 20 we should get started so he can be admitted."

21 Q. All right. And is that a text message
22 that you, in fact, sent on May 31st, 2017, to

1 defendant Christian Dawkins?

2 A. Yes.

3 Q. And does that text -- transcription of 4 that text message fairly and accurately depict
5 what you, in fact, sent Mr. Dawkins?

6 A. Yes.

7 Q. Based upon your general knowledge of the 8 NCAA bylaws, once a player is enrolled at a member
9 institution, they are prohibited from playing any 10 intercollegiate sports if they transfer from that 11 institution for at least one year.

12 MR. FORBES: Objection.

13 THE WITNESS: I'm not sure I understand.
14 BY MR. MCLEOD:

15 Q. So let me ask you this: Once an elite
16 prospect like Brian enrolls at the university,
17 does that secure his eligibility and basketball
18 services by the very fact that he was enrolled?

19 MR. FORBES: Objection.

20 THE WITNESS: By enrolling, the student
21 athlete would have to sign documentation enrolling
22 and sign a financial aid agreement. So I think

Page 248

1 it's a lot more than just being admitted to --

2 BY MR. MCLEOD:

3 Q. Well, if Brian -- if somebody submitted
4 paperwork to the university enrolling him as a
5 student, under NCAA laws, he wouldn't be able to 6 play at any college other than Louisville for the 7 upcoming season; isn't that correct, sir?

8 A. I don't think someone could submit
9 paperwork enrolling him without his consent.

10 Q. So what were you referring to, sir, here
11 when you indicated, "Tugs doesn't need to know,
12 but we should get started so he can be admitted."

13 A. Upon advice of counsel, I'm exercising my
14 Fifth Amendment privilege.

15 Q. Okay, sir. Now, with regard to the NCAA
16 bylaws generally, you answered some questions
17 earlier and certainly to the best of your ability;
18 you don't hold yourself out to be an expert on the 19 NCAA bylaws and compliance therewith, do you?

20 A. No.

21 Q. And Mr. Johnson, would you defer to the 22 NCAA bylaws with regard to what they mean and

Page 249

1 what, if any, impact they had on Brian's
2 eligibility?

3 A. Yes.

4 Q. Now, with regard to Brian's eligibility,
5 isn't it true, sir, that there is a certification
6 process that all student athletes go through prior
7 to being declared eligible to play for an NCAA
8 membership institution?

9 A. Yes.

10 Q. And does that process include submitting
11 paperwork to the NCAA clearinghouse and for 12 examinations to be done and for the NCAA to 13 ultimately make a decision whether or not the 14 player is, in fact, eligible for participation in 15 sports or ineligible for participation in sports?

16 A. Yes.

17 Q. And sir, is the NCAA the sole governing
18 body with regard to deciding who gets to play and 19 who does not get to play when it comes to 20 eligibility?

21 MR. MORAN: Objection.

Page 250

1 BY MR. MCLEOD:

2 Q. Sir?

3 A. To my understanding, yes.

4 Q. Okay. And isn't it true, sir, that the
5 only reason Brian was unable to play at the
6 University of Louisville was because of the Adidas
7 bribery scheme?

8 MR. FORBES: Objection.

9 BY MR. MCLEOD:

10 Q. Isn't that true, sir?

11 A. I have no opinion on that.

12 Q. Did the NCAA declare Brian eligible for 13 participation prior to the Adidas bribery scheme
14 payment being made to his father?

15 MR. MORAN: Objection.

16 THE WITNESS: Upon advice of counsel, I'm
17 exercising my Fifth Amendment privilege.

18 BY MR. MCLEOD:

19 Q. Okay. You don't have any information
20 today to dispute the fact that the NCAA did, in 21 fact, certify Brian's eligibility prior to the 22 Adidas bribery scheme payment being made, do you?

Page 251

1 MR. MORAN: Objection.

2 MR. FORBES: Objection.

3 THE WITNESS: Upon advice of counsel, I'm
4 exercising my Fifth Amendment privilege.

5 BY MR. MCLEOD:

6 Q. Okay. And I don't want to go through the 7 bylaws with you chapter and verse, because they'll
8 be admitted into evidence at trial, and I think
9 the court will be able to call balls and strikes
10 on it, but I do want to ask you about one thing
11 because they keep asking about this in these
12 depositions.13 They asked you about a meeting that you
14 had in Las Vegas. Do you remember that?

15 MR. FORBES: Objection.

16 THE WITNESS: What exactly are you
17 referring to?

18 BY MR. MCLEOD:

19 Q. Well, let me ask you this: Under the 20 NCAA bylaws, there are permitted and permissible
21 contact periods wherein colleges can communicate
22 with recruits about their basketball services and

Page 252

1 securing their commitments, correct?

2 MR. MORAN: Objection.

3 MR. FORBES: Objection.

4 THE WITNESS: I'd need you to rephrase
5 that for me.

6 BY MR. MCLEOD:

7 Q. Sure.

8 In the recruiting of a prospective
9 student athlete, are there time periods where it
10 is permissible for coaches like yourself to make
11 contact with recruits?

12 A. Yes.

13 Q. Under the NCAA bylaws, are there periods
14 of time wherein coaches like you are prohibited
15 from making contacts with prospective student
16 athletes?

17 A. Yes.

18 Q. And isn't it true, sir, that it is up to 19 the university to govern whether or not these 20 permissible contact periods are adhered to?

21 MR. MORAN: Objection.

22 THE WITNESS: Yes.

Kenneth Laverne Johnson , Jr.

Page 253

1 BY MR. MCLEOD:

2 Q. There's nowhere in the NCAA bylaws that
3 you're aware of, sir, that it requires a high
4 school student to be knowledgeable about the 5 permissible contact periods in relation to the 6 impermissible contact periods, is there?

7 MR. FORBES: Objection.

8 THE WITNESS: Not that I have seen.

9 BY MR. MCLEOD:

10 Q. And Mr. Johnson, would it be a fairly
11 ineffective enforcement scheme to rely on a
12 teenager to become knowledgeable about the 13 permissible contact periods and to enforce the 14 permissible contact periods for member
15 institutions that are recruiting him?

16 MR. MORAN: Objection.

17 MR. FORBES: Objection.

18 THE WITNESS: Are you asking my opinion?

19 BY MR. MCLEOD:

20 Q. Yes, sir.

21 MR. FORBES: He's asking you to 22 speculate.

Page 254

1                   THE WITNESS: I don't really feel
2 comfortable speculating.

3 BY MR. MCLEOD:

4                   Q. All right. Well, under rule -- bylaw
5 13.1.1.1, isn't it true, sir, that any contact
6 that occurs between a coach like yourself and an
7 elite prospect like Brian is considered an 8 institutional violation only?

9                   MR. MORAN: Objection.

10                  THE WITNESS: I'm not an authority on the 11 NCAA rule book.

12 BY MR. MCLEOD:

13                  Q. All right. Were you not aware, sir, that
14 if there is impermissible conduct that the NCAA
15 bylaws specifically state on page 10 of the 16 preamble that that impermissible conduct shall
17 have no effect on the prospective student
18 athlete's eligibility to participate in NCAA
19 athletics?

20                  MR. MORAN: Objection.

21                  THE WITNESS: You say was I aware of 22 that? No. But I could read the -- you know, if

Page 255

1 the situation arose, I could refer back to the
2 rule book to find that information.

3 BY MR. MCLEOD:

4 Q. So let me read for you how the NCAA
5 defines de minimis violations, and I'll ask you
6 whether or not this comports with your general
7 knowledge of the NCAA bylaws. On page 10 of the 8 preamble, "Violations of articles designated by 9 capital letter D in brackets and bold
10 front [sic] '[D]' at the end of the legislative
11 language shall be considered institutional
12 violations per constitution 2.8 [sic]. However,
13 the involved prospective student athlete's or 14 student athlete's eligibility shall not be 15 affected."

16 Does that language from the NCAA bylaws
17 comport with your general knowledge on what, if 18 any, repercussions the student athlete receives in 19 any impermissible contact?

20 MR. MORAN: Objection.

21 BY MR. MCLEOD:

22 Q. You can answer.

Page 256

1 A. Yes.

2 Q. Okay. Now, with regard to this AAU stuff
3 that people keep asking about, isn't it true, sir,
4 that nothing that happened during Brian's teenage
5 years had any impact on his NCAA eligibility to 6 play for the University of Louisville, did it?

7 MR. FORBES: Objection.

8 MR. MORAN: Objection.

9 THE WITNESS: I don't know.

10 BY MR. MCLEOD:

11 Q. Sir?

12 A. I don't know.

13 Q. You don't have any personal knowledge of 14 anything that happened during Brian's teenage
15 years having any impact on his eligibility to play
16 at Louisville, do you?

17 MR. MORAN: Same objection.

18 THE WITNESS: I don't know what happened
19 during his teenage years. I don't have any 20 personal information.

21 BY MR. MCLEOD:

22 Q. Yes, sir. You have no personal knowledge

Page 257

1 of the NCAA ever making any decisions that
2 impacted Brian's eligibility other than the Adidas
3 bribery scheme; isn't that correct?

4 MR. MORAN: Objection.

5 MR. FORBES: Objection.

6 THE WITNESS: Upon advice of counsel, I'm
7 exercising my Fifth Amendment privilege.

8 BY MR. MCLEOD:

9 Q. Did you know a gentleman named T.J.
10 Gassnola?

11 A. Upon advice of counsel, I'm exercising my
12 Fifth Amendment privilege.

13 Q. In dealing with Mr. Gassnola, who worked
14 for Adidas and, in particular, under the direction
15 of Jim Gatto, did you anticipate that the 16 gentleman would be reputable because he worked for 17 Adidas' interest?

18 MR. MORAN: Objection.

19 THE WITNESS: Upon advice of counsel, I'm
20 exercising my Fifth Amendment privilege.

10 Q. Do you remember -- two seconds.

11 Do you remember a player named Corey
12 Maggette that played for Duke?

13 A. Corey Maggette?

14 Q. Maggette. Yes, sir. I'm sorry.

15 A. Yes.

16 Q. Do you remember a player named Kareem
17 Rush?

18 A. Yes.

19 Q. Where did Kareem Rush ultimately play
20 college basketball?

21 A. I don't know.

22 Q. Do you remember a player names Korleone

Page 259

1 Young?

2 A. I'm familiar with that name as well.

3 Q. Okay. Were all three of those players
4 considered elite prospects coming out of high
5 school?

6 A. I believe so.

7 Q. Okay. And do you recall that a gentleman
8 by the name of Myron Piggie of Kansas City,
9 Missouri?

10 A. I'm familiar with that name.

11 Q. And Mr. Piggie was sentenced to 37 months
12 in prison as it related to $35,000 worth of 13 payments to five teenagers, including Mr. Rush,
14 Mr. Young, and Corey Maggette; isn't that correct?

15 A. I don't know.

16 Q. Isn't it true, sir, that that particular
17 circumstance involved substantial sums of money
18 that were paid directly to the players during the 19 summer basketball circuit?

20 MR. FORBES: Objection.

7 MR. MORAN: Objection.

8 MR. FORBES: Objection.

9 THE WITNESS: I didn't.

10 BY MR. MCLEOD:

11 Q. Do you remember, sir, that despite those 12 payments, the penalties assessed by the NCAA
13 against those specific individuals ranged from 14 five to nine-game suspensions and five to 15 nine-game suspensions only?

16 MR. MORAN: Objection.

17 THE WITNESS: I didn't know that.

18 MR. FORBES: Objection.

19 BY MR. MCLEOD:

20 Q. All right. Now, with regard to the 21 eligibility certification process, do you think
22 that people who are accused of wrongdoing should

1 have the ability to be put on notice and argue in
2 their defense?

3 A. One more time, please.

4 MR. MORAN: Objection.

5 BY MR. MCLEOD:

6 Q. Do you think that people who are charged

8 informed of such and argue in their own defense?

9 MR. MORAN: Same objection.

10 THE WITNESS: In reference --

11 BY MR. MCLEOD:

12 Q. Just generally speaking.

13 A. Okay. Last time. One more time with the 14 question.

15 Q. Well, let me ask you this: Do you
16 recognize that Brian Bowen has been significantly
17 harmed by the Adidas bribery scheme?

18 MR. MORAN: Objection.

19 THE WITNESS: I don't have an opinion on 20 that.

21 BY MR. MCLEOD:

22 Q. Would you agree with me, sir, that

Page 262

1 Brian's preparation for the NBA draft experienced
2 a significant disruption as a result of the Adidas
3 bribery scheme?

4 MR. MORAN: Objection.

5 THE WITNESS: I don't want to speculate.

6 BY MR. MCLEOD:

7 Q. Are you aware, sir -- well, let me ask
8 you, for elite players preparing to play in the 9 NBA, is it a good thing or a bad thing to be 10 exiled from basketball for 18 months?

11 MR. MORAN: Objection.

12 THE WITNESS: I would think that that 13 would be bad.

14 BY MR. MCLEOD:

15 Q. And would it be -- well, based upon your 16 knowledge as a basketball coach, and more
17 particularly at University of Louisville, would
18 being out of the game of basketball for 18 months
19 have a direct and immediate impact upon your entry
20 into the NBA?

21 MR. MORAN: Objection.

Page 263

1 BY MR. MCLEOD:

2 Q. Sometimes I have to ask you the obvious,
3 sir. I'm sorry.4 A. Yeah -- if you're not allowed to
5 participate, would that hurt you? I would say --
6 I would assume that it would.

7 Q. Yes, sir.

8 And if you're not allowed to have
9 competitive minutes in competitive games, that,
10 too, will have a direct adverse effect on your
11 entry into the NBA; isn't that correct, sir?

12 MR. MCLEOD: Objection.

13 THE WITNESS: I would assume potentially,
14 yes.

15 BY MR. MCLEOD:

16 Q. And that is based upon your having
17 coached in basketball at the highest levels; is 18 that correct?19 A. Yeah. That's where my opinion comes 20 from.21 Q. And that -- your assessment is based upon 22 having coached players who were drafted in the

Bowen v. Adidas

1 first round of the NBA draft; is that correct?

2 A. Yes. That's been my experience.

3 Q. And Mr. Johnson, you have gained over the 4 years a significant amount of knowledge and
5 experience with regard to what it takes, from a
6 training and basketball development standpoint, to 7 prepare for the NBA; is that correct?

8 MR. MORAN: Objection.

9 THE WITNESS: (No verbal response.)

12 THE REPORTER: I'm sorry. This is
13 Christina. I didn't actually hear an answer.

14 THE WITNESS: I didn't give one.

15 BY MR. MCLEOD:

16 Q. Is your assessment of the impact of not
17 being able to train and play competitive minutes
18 and its adverse effect upon your entry into the 19 draft, is that assessment based upon you and your
20 work as a basketball coach over the years?

21 A. Yes. That's my opinion.

22 MR. FORBES: Objection.

2 Q. Let's look at tab number -- Exhibit
3 Number 13, please, sir. Now, let's go to text
4 message number 180.

5 Do you see that?

6 A. I do.

7 Q. All right. And that's a text message
8 that counsel for Adidas asked you about relating
9 to an Audi.

10 Do you remember those questions?

11 A. I do.

12 Q. Isn't it true, sir, that Brian Bowen
13 never owned an Audi at any time he was at the 14 University of Louisville?

15 MR. FORBES: Objection.

16 THE WITNESS: Upon advice of counsel, I'm
17 exercising my Fifth Amendment privilege.

18 BY MR. MCLEOD:

19 Q. Isn't it true, sir, that one way we know
20 that that does not reference an automobile is by 21 the fact that Brian did not have a car while he 22 was at Louisville and participated with the

1 University of Louisville basketball team?

2 A. Upon advice of counsel, I'm exercising my
3 Fifth Amendment privilege.

4 Q. Okay. You don't have any personal
5 knowledge, sir, of Brian ever owning an
6 automobile, do you?

7 A. I don't know of his automobile ownership.

8 Q. Okay. Now, in your coaching career, have
9 you become familiar with what is generally
10 referred to in the insurance industry as a loss
11 value insurance policy?

12 A. Yes.

13 Q. And loss value insurance policies are 14 actually promoted by the NCAA as an inducement for 15 elite players like Brian to spend their year
16 following high school preparing for the NBA in the 17 college ranks; isn't that correct?

18 A. Yes.

19 Q. And based upon your having been involved
20 with personally and as a coach, is the fear of 21 injury during their preparation for the NBA a
22 reasonable concern for any elite player?

Kenneth Laverne Johnson , Jr.

Page 267

1 A. Yes.

2 Q. And is that why some players or some
3 universities take out loss value insurance
4 policies on a particular elite prospect?

5 A. Yes.

6 Q. So for example, are you generally aware
7 that it's been reported that Zion Williamson,
8 while at Duke University, had in place a loss of 9 value policy in the event that his - in the event
10 that he suffered an injury and his first-round
11 pick fell below number 16 in the draft?

12 A. Yes.

13 Q. And isn't it true, sir, that the
14 University of Louisville purchased the exact same
15 type of insurance for Brian Bowen?16 A. Upon advice of counsel, I'm exercising my 17 Fifth Amendment privilege.18 Q. Okay. Sir, in text message number 179 at 19 5/30 at 2:47 p.m. --

20 A. Yes.

2 Just need AD to approve that it's paid for."

3           Q. And does that indicate there that you
4 read that text message?

5           A. Yes.

6           Q. All right. Based upon your work at 7 University of Louisville, do you have any personal
8 knowledge of the head athletic director ever
9 getting involved in car insurance for any student
10 athlete?

11          A. No.

12          Q. In your work with the University of 13 Louisville, do you have any personal knowledge of 14 Lloyd's of London, which is located on another
15 continent, issuing a liability policy in the State
16 of Kentucky with regard to an automobile owned by 17 anyone?

18          A. No.

19          Q. In your work with elite prospects at 20 Louisville, have you come to understand that 21 Lloyd's of London is an insurance company that 22 does underwrite and issue policies commonly

Page 269

1 referred to as loss of value insurance?

2 A. Yes.

3 Q. Is it your understanding, sir, based upon
4 readily available published reports, that Lloyd's
5 of London was the carrier that issued Zion
6 Williamson's policy while he was a freshman at 7 Duke?

8 A. Yes.

9 Q. Have you -- I'm assuming you own your own
10 car?

11 A. Yes.

12 Q. And you have to have insurance on the 13 car, correct?

14 A. Yes.

15 Q. And throughout your personal and
16 professional endeavors, you've had to purchase
17 insurance for a broad range of things; is that 18 correct?

19 A. Yes.

20 Q. Based upon your personal knowledge of 21 having purchased insurance products throughout
22 your career, have you come to learn that the

1 insurance industry is fairly sophisticated?

2 A. Yes.

3 Q. Has it been your personal experience in 4 purchasing insurance products throughout your
5 personal and professional life that the insurance
6 industry is heavily regulated?

7 A. Yes.

8 Q. Is it your understanding with loss of 9 use -- loss of value policies that they
10 specifically ensure earnings for the prospective
11 student athlete?

12 A. One more time.

13 Q. Is it your understanding of loss of value
14 insurance policies that they ensure the prospect's
15 NBA earnings?

16 A. Yeah, to a certain percentage, I believe 17 so.

18 Q. Right. And is it your understanding of 19 these policies, and the ones that the NCAA
20 promotes, that they are insurable interests?
21 "They" being the NBA earnings.

22 A. Yes.

1           Q. And those NBA earnings are insured and
2 protected while the elite prospect like Brian is
3 playing college basketball, correct?

4           A. Yes.

5           Q. And based upon your having purchased
6 insurance products both personally and
7 professionally, has it been made aware to you that
8 insurance companies do not issue insurance
9 policies that insure against the criminal acts of 10 third parties?

11           MR. FORBES: Objection.

12           THE WITNESS: I'm not familiar with that.
13 BY MR. MCLEOD:

14           Q. Well, let me ask you, based upon your 15 having purchased different insurance products in 16 your personal and professional career, are you
17 aware of any insurance product offered by any 18 carrier anywhere on this continent or any of the 19 other six continents that would protect Brian from

4 A. I do.

5 Q. And is that a text message that you sent

7 A. Yes.

8 Q. And did you send that text message, sir,
9 in response to Defendant Dawkins' text message at 10 approximately 44 -- 43 minutes earlier where he
11 told you that he had a quote and the paperwork,
12 just needed the AD to approve that it's paid for?13 Is that text 177 your response to the

19 BY MR. MCLEOD:

20 Q. And that text at 177, that is an accurate
21 transcription of the text that you sent to 22 Mr. Dawkins on May 30th, 2017, correct?

Page 273

1 A. Yes.

2 Q. And tom Jurich was the athletic director
3 at Louisville at that time; is that correct?

4 A. Yes.

5 Q. Now, what personal knowledge do you have
6 about Adidas providing Mr. Jurich's daughter a job
7 with the company shortly before or shortly after 8 the $160 million extension was entered into
9 between Adidas and the university?

12 THE WITNESS: I don't have any knowledge
13 of that.

14 BY MR. MCLEOD:

15 Q. Okay. And Mr. Forbes asked you earlier

18 Do you remember that?

2 Q. Well, why do you think Mr. Forbes -- why
3 do you think Adidas' counsel asked you about that?

4 MR. FORBES: Objection.

5 THE WITNESS: I don't know.

6 BY MR. MCLEOD:

7 Q. Do you think if somebody has any type of 8 disability or any type of medical condition, that 9 other people should respect that?

10 A. Do I think that a medical condition
11 should be respected?

12 Q. Yes, sir.

13 A. Yes.

14 Q. And that is a matter of human decency and 15 dignity, is it not?

16 A. Yes.

17 Q. Now, what was the date that you were
18 basically suspended and/or terminated as a
19 basketball coach at Louisville?

20 A. I don't recall the exact day that I was 21 suspended with pay, but I do recall the day that I
22 was effectively terminated being on or around

Page 275

1 November the 23rd.

2 Q. Of what year, please, sir?

3 A. 2017.

4 Q. All right. And when was it that you were 5 hired at La Salle University? Just roughly.

6 A. Roughly, May of 2018.

7 Q. Now, from the time that you were let go
8 at Louisville until May of 2013, did you work
9 extremely hard to find other gainful employment in 10 the coaching profession?

11 A. Yes. 2018? Yes.

12 Q. And during that six-month window --
13 actually, do you have children, sir?

14 A. I do.

15 Q. Was that a stressful period of time for 16 you and your family?

17 A. Yes.

18 Q. How long were you able to stay at 19 La Salle before you were terminated from that job?

20 A. Two years.

21 Q. Okay. And what was the date of your
22 separation from La Salle?

Page 276

1           A. It was approximately May the -- it was
2 May of 2020.

3           Q. 2020?

4           A. Early May of 2020.

5           Q. All right. And from the time you were
6 let go at Louisville until the time you were hired
7 at La Salle, was it difficult to find a job in the 8 coaching profession because of all the media
9 coverage related to the Adidas bribery scheme?

3 implicated or mentioned in the Adidas bribery
4 scheme?

5 A. They never gave me a full explanation as
6 to why they would choose other candidates.

7 Q. Do you know whether you will ever be able
8 to get back into the coaching profession?

9 A. I do not.

10 Q. Is that an uneasy prospect for you to 11 digest based upon the many years and the level of 12 expertise that you developed in your career?

13 A. I don't like it.

14 Q. Have the last two years been difficult on 15 you financially?

16 A. The last three-and-a-half years. Yes.

17 Q. And is it your experience, based upon
18 your own personal situation, that people should 19 have the right to make their own financial

10 given on an annual basis; is that correct?

11 A. Yes.

12 Q. And for those one-year scholarships, the

4 MR. MCLEOD: Yeah, I'll try to --

5 MR. FORBES: What financial aid
6 department?

7 MR. MCLEOD: -- ask a better question.

8 BY MR. MCLEOD:

9 Q. Has it been your general understanding
10 that for most scholarships for student athletes,
11 the student and his parent signs a document with 12 the financial aid office and that that document is 13 generally referred to as an aid agreement, a
14 grant-in-aid agreement?

15 A. Yes.

16 Q. All right. Now, do you have any
17 knowledge of Rick Pitino, the hall of fame coach,
18 or Tom Jurich, ever having signed on any 19 grant-in-aid agreements for any players at the 20 University of Louisville?

21 A. I don't know what they signed.

22 Q. Okay. Were you aware that the contract

Page 290

1 that Brian entered into with Louisville was for a
2 guaranteed four years? Were you aware of that?

3 A. Upon advice of counsel, I'm exercising my
4 Fifth Amendment privilege.

5 Q. Were you aware, sir, on the contract
6 whereby the University of Louisville secured
7 Brian's basketball services and talent, hall of 8 fame coach Rick Pitino's signature is on that
9 document?

10 MR. MORAN: Objection.

11 MR. FORBES: Objection. Misstates the 12 document.

13 BY MR. MCLEOD:

14 Q. You can answer.

15 A. Upon advice of counsel, I'm exercising my
16 Fifth Amendment privilege.

17 Q. Okay. Sir, were you aware that the 18 contract that Brian entered into with Louisville
19 whereby Louisville secured the rights to Brian's
20 basketball labor and talent was also signed by the 21 athletic director at the university?

22 MR. MORAN: Objection.

1 MR. FORBES: Objection.

2 THE WITNESS: Upon advice of counsel, I'm
3 exercising my Fifth Amendment privilege.

4 BY MR. MCLEOD:

5 Q. Okay. Do you understand as a parent that
6 there can be legal issues with enforcement when a
7 parent purports to sign on behalf of a child who
8 is of majority age?

9 MR. FORBES: Objection.

10 THE WITNESS: Am I aware of that? No. I
11 mean, I would be speculating. I haven't had that 12 experience with that.

13 BY MR. MCLEOD:

14 Q. All right. I'll come back to that. Let 15 me show you right now, though, Exhibit Number 14.

16 A. All right.

17 Q. Now, Exhibit 14 in particular, the text
18 message at 162.

19 Do you see that?

20 A. Yes.

21 Q. And is that text message that you
22 received on May 30 of 2017 in your capacity as

1 assistant basketball coach at Louisville?

2 A. Yes.

3 Q. And based upon that text message, does it
4 indicate that defendant Dawkins is coordinating
5 with Adidas with regard to Brian's visit at the
6 University of Louisville?

7 MR. FORBES: Objection.

8 THE WITNESS: It says, "They liked it. I
9 just need to talk to Adidas when I'm away from 10 them and then get back to them and we should be 11 good."

12 BY MR. MCLEOD:

13 Q. All right. Is that an accurate
14 transcription of the text message that you
15 received on May 30th, 2017?

16 A. Yes.

17 Q. Now, at text message 161, does defendant
18 Dawkins also indicate to you that he is reporting
19 back to a Mr. Rivers?

20 MR. MORAN: Objection. Misstates the 21 text message.

22 THE WITNESS: The text message says, "I

Page 293

1 just sent the text to Rivers that we had a good
2 visit. We should -- we going to be good, I'm
3 sure. Let's go."

4 BY MR. MCLEOD:

5 Q. Based upon your understanding of having
6 been involved in Brian's recruitment, is the 7 Mr. Rivers that is referenced in that text
8 message, in fact, Mr. Rivers who was employed by 9 Adidas?

10 A. Upon advice of counsel, I'm exercising my
11 Fifth Amendment privilege.

12 Q. Now, during the -- in the aftermath of 13 the Strippergate, did that pose additional 14 recruiting challenges for the Louisville men's 15 basketball team?

16 A. Yes.

17 Q. And in the aftermath of Strippergate, did
18 that jeopardize the school's revenues, considering
19 72 percent of the athletic department's revenues
20 come from the basketball team?

21 A. I don't want to make an assumption. I
22 don't know.

Page 294

1           Q. Would it be fair to say, sir, that during
2 the time of Brian's recruitment, the hope and the
3 expectation on behalf of Louisville is that you
4 all had finally gotten clear of the Strippergate
5 scandal?

6           MR. FORBES: Objection.

7           THE WITNESS: Can you rephrase that? I
8 don't really know what you're asking.

9 BY MR. MCLEOD:

10          Q. Well, tell me, sir, what, if any,
11 challenges you faced, in the aftermath of 12 Strippergate, in recruiting elite prospects to 13 play at the University of Louisville.

14          A. I personally didn't feel like we had too
15 many challenges other than just explaining what 16 went on during those years. I think that the 17 program was doing fine as far as being able to 18 recruit players.

19          Q. For elite prospects like Brian, if a
20 school was under the cloud of investigation, that 21 weighs fairly heavy in their decisionmaking
22 process, does it not?

Page 295

1 MR. MORAN: Objection.

2 MR. FORBES: Objection.

3 THE WITNESS: It depends on the student
4 athlete.

5 BY MR. MCLEOD:

6 Q. Well, for example, if Brian committed to
7 University of Louisville and then, after his
8 commitment, Louisville was banned from all
9 post-season play, that would likely affect Brian's
10 basketball development.

11 Would you agree with that?

12 MR. FORBES: Objection. It calls for the 13 witness to speculate, Mullins.14 MR. MCLEOD: Well, I can actually prove 15 he has personal knowledge of it, Mr. Forbes, if 16 you would just give me five minutes.17 THE WITNESS: It would eliminate their 18 opportunity to perform in the NCAA tournament.

19 BY MR. MCLEOD:

20 Q. And that would upset elite basketball
21 players who are preparing for the NBA by playing
22 at Louisville, correct?

1           A. Upset as in disappoint them?

2           Q. Yes.

3           A. Yes, I would assume that they would be
4 disappointed.

5           Q. For example, in the wake of the 6 Strippergate scandal, didn't Coach Pitino announce
7 that the university was going to institute a
8 self-ban on post-season play during the middle of 9 the season?

10          A. Yes.

11          Q. And didn't you all have two transfers
12 that were fairly upset about the fact that they 13 would not be able to play in the NCAA tournament?

14          A. Yes.

15          Q. And what were those players' names, sir?

16          A. Damion Lee and Trey Lewis.

17          Q. Okay. And were they upset, sir, based 18 upon your having worked -- been the basketball
19 coach because they were fearful of what negative
20 impact they may suffer by not being able to 21 participate in what is generally referred to as 22 March Madness?

1 MR. MORAN: Objection.

2 THE WITNESS: I mean, that could be a
3 part of it. I know they were also -- they were 4 upset just in general about being competitors and
5 wanting to play in the NCAA tournament.

6 BY MR. MCLEOD:

7 Q. Right. And when they were -- where did
8 they transfer from in to Louisville?9 A. Cleveland State, Trey Lewis. Drexel,
10 Damion Lee.

11 Q. Okay. Cleveland State and Drexel?

12 A. Yes.

13 Q. Do you know whether Drexel has any
14 corporate affiliation with Adidas?

15 A. I don't know.

16 Q. Do you know whether Cleveland State has 17 any corporate affiliation with Adidas?

18 A. I don't know.

19 Q. Had they established themselves at their
20 respective schools as elite basketball players
21 prior to transferring to Louisville?

22 A. I believe -- I guess it just depends on

Kenneth Laverne Johnson , Jr.

April 14, 2021

Page 298

1 who's judging it. I mean, they were both highly
2 sought-after grad transfers. Damion had at one
3 point in his career led the country in scoring.

4 Q. And did they come to Louisville because
5 of the basketball services that Louisville offered
6 in preparing them for the NBA?

7 A. Yes, as well as the opportunity to play
8 in the tournament and at a higher level.

9 Q. Based upon your personal recollection of 10 that time, was Adidas involved in the discussions
11 prior to Coach Pitino announcing the post-season
12 ban?

13 A. I don't know.

14 MR. FORBES: Objection.

15 BY MR. MCLEOD:

16 Q. Do you have any personal knowledge
17 whether or not Adidas was involved after 18 Coach Pitino announced the post-season ban with 19 regard to either one of those two players?

20 A. No.

21 MR. FORBES: Objection.

2 Q. Do you know whether the university or
3 anybody at Louisville or Adidas consulted with 4 either one of those players before announcing the 5 post-season ban?

6 A. No.

7 Q. Do you think, sir, it would have been
8 fair to the student athlete who transferred to 9 Louisville for its basketball services for you all
10 to have at least consulted with them about what 11 their thoughts were on a post-season ban?

12 MR. FORBES: Objection.

13 THE WITNESS: I'm not in that
14 decisionmaking process, so I wouldn't think to 15 have an opinion on that.16 MR. MCLEOD: Okay. I think that's all I
17 have, Mr. Johnson. And if they have some other
18 questions, if I've missed something, I'll come
19 back to it. I appreciate your patience, sir.

20 THE WITNESS: Okay.

21 MR. MORAN: Matt, I'll go ahead if that's 22 okay with you. I just have a couple of questions.
